

GDL Salina Ringel and Caela Crawford

Welcome Welcome back to Good Day Live I'm Michelle Murad along with Kyle Trueblood Hello how are you And we have with us today Miss Selena Ringel and Kale Crawford Hello How are we doing Bravo Bravo Bravo So how are we today Of course of course of course Yeah you guys have a special coming up don't you Let's just cut to the chase We're doing a stand up comedy special Um and we're filming with a live audience This one shows 7 p.m. 8 30 pm and the title of it is 21 mic The idea was that it was my idea when I was very pregnant It just made me laugh I thought about it And so that I I into her DM on Instagram Literally I was like I've got this idea for you so cute And I was like it's funny too because I'm the kind of person who's like I only say yes if I can actually do something And then I really like I say yes I mean it and then we'll make it happen So she was like this was literally like probably over two years ago that she slid in my DM you were pregnant and your baby is about to turn one So like a year and a half or something She was like what if we did a stand up comedy special And I was like yes And then like like we've just been working towards that since that we were doing She was so good about like creating a schedule and like Google Docs and I was like oh ok So we really are doing that Yeah like like I originally just decided to like make myself feel better and then like get on it You know what Funny before she even asked me to do it I had it on my manifestation board She did So I have like a picture of like Amy Schumer with a mic on her Netflix special but it's my face pasted in front of me and then there's some babies right under it So maybe that I was manifesting two moms I'm like an inspiring wait There are babies under it Yeah I just wanted another baby So that was on there but it was it was near you should have brought it in Oh you're hilarious I thought you meant the baby And I was like call that bit the vision board vision board and Selena is so successful And so are you Kayla And I'm like this vision board I I got to get on this You got to put out there what you want this is station this is like we say what we want here and then it just happens So I guess with that being said what would you like to have happen No we did this practice the other day We just acted like it happened Yeah Yeah Yeah So we're like this is going to be on no no no no This is this is this is on Hulu HBO and Netflix There's not like a war right now offering we take Yeah but we're super excited So excited So um are the kids coming like or are they not coming to what the the kids are always They'll be calling us They'll show us good luck with the show before they go to sleep We're gonna facetime them We're gonna film that being done and into the special So cute Do you think you guys got funnier after you had kids Oh Yeah I for sure more more tragic funny thing happen to you when you have Children I think yes I think it was your set where you were talking about like what happens when you have a baby And I was like oh my God no I I if I remember your set correctly like it was like what happens after or like right like directly after and was like what you wanted to happen before And I don't want to this is so much I don't want to give anything away but I do want to say that as a male It was actually really funny to listen to because it's like it's got to be challenging We don't know we don't even know forget about showing up We don't even know what's going on You just get to have a good time We just eat sandwiches Instead I say like my husband likes to say we had the baby That's cute We just had a child Yeah Yeah Exactly Yeah Does that irk you every time he does that But you know that's why I love our show because it is for men and women and men will come and we talk about our husbands throughout our set because they're a part of the whole time the whole time I was like we were talking about like female bodily functions and I'm still crying laughing I was like this is risky to LA and crying Like by the way I would pay to have you as an audience But you know what's funny Because I myself too I'm always like damn it Why am I not in my own show Because I'm a good laugh Like she wants to be in the audience when I'm on stage doing my she wants to be like in the front row which would be like you should do that That's really cute I mean I love to laugh and when it's funny I laugh like really laugh laugh like snot cry Like it's gross I be like rolling over my stomach Needs to hurt and it was when you were like this like yeah like for the show how do you come up with a with a stand up material Like how do you come up with that Is it just like living your life and like oh that's good I'm going to use that's how it happens for me and then I write it in my phone Ok Ok Ok I think it happens at like 3 a.m. and I'm like that's genius And then like I rolled over and I was like I forgot what I was just thinking Yeah And then you remember and you write it down So we just have like a bunch of notes But we also I think for me at least I tweak a lot of things Like there's something really funny like sometimes I don't even know what the joke is I'm like there's something really funny about this general concept And then I'm like now I need to figure out what's the funniest version of what I want to say about that concept you know and then you kind of like test out different things and you're like this seems to be the funniest version of that I think that's why as a male I connected with both of you also because you're telling a story And then it's funny like it's it's it's not informative but it's you're taking me on a journey I love being like a journey teller Stand up there are punches throughout punches throughout It's well the sequence is great Um Where where can people we'll plug later Yeah we'll plug later But so my question is how did the stand up happen uh for you Kayla how did it all start I was doing improv and I thought I was just too friendly when I was on stage with eight people on stage And I would always be like you go no you do the scene Like people would step out and I was like you know you go you go And so I was just too nice and I thought I should try stand up because I'm the only one on stage So then I can actually give my opinion and speak up And then I started taking classes at flappers and then I took a pretty funny women class which is where we met through the shows And then I started touring with Paul Rodriguez a big comedian and that really changed things for me like seeing him do his hour long sets I was like I want to do this amazing But were you were you always like drawn to comedy Like as a little kid Like I was like a Shakespearean actress And I remember being 17 right before I went to college and my dad came into my bedroom and he's like I just watched Ellen do her stand up You should try doing stand up And I was like getting out of my room Dad I'm a serious actress Like I really thought like Shakespeare like I was doing Midsummer Night's Dream and Romeo and Juliet And I was pretty funny when I was doing and I realized I should have been doing it all along I love that So you were always wanting to be in front of a crowd on a stage theater kid But never it was never comedy until yeah I used to like musicals and plays like that but it was always like acting and Shakespeare and theater which is basically just stand up I mean you really think about it It is you're putting on your own play It is And I have to say I have to say now that I'm thinking back I want to say the things in your stand up so bad because it's so funny I'm not going to But there is a there is a part where you're like oh almost singing And you're like uh yeah exactly And the way you do it I'm like wow her voice is incredible My dad my dad keeps saying incorporate your dance bring a piano with stage Your dad like loves piano play We look at the other end Right Exactly We'll do everything perfect Yeah that's awesome I love that so much Um and then uh and then you have an almost one year old So in October October 18 0 my gosh That's amazing Oh she's got like blue eyes and red hair and she's really like she's going to be so tall and I'm going to look like the nanny next time gonna be like a stunning Adonis stunning a Donna She gets it from her mama What's her name Man I just want to share all the funny like from their specials It was just so good not their special but like their stand up It's so good It's so good It's so good Ok I'll stop Um Yeah they just have to see it Uh Selena I know a little bit more about you but um for those that are watching that just meeting you for the first time II I remember this a little bit that when you were younger you want to be part of a mariachi band Yes So so it's funny So I'm like I've always had this being that people have always made fun of me because I really have like no shame So like if I like if there was a Mariachi band I would just get up and I would take a mic and I would just start singing and I was like set you know what I mean And like and and and this has happened to me a lot of times like where people it's like there's 200 people and someone be like oh can someone like we need someone to help like give a seat and I'm like oh hand me the mic like you know do you know what you're saying I'm like no but I'll figure it out when I get there you know So I think like that's one of the pieces that like for me has been easy but you know the the actual stand up part of it really came from I was a producer and I was doing a lot of producing Um and I kind of hit a wall at some point because I felt like I wasn't creatively doing the stuff I wanted to be doing So I took a stand up class as well for fun Like I was like I just want to play again Serious I'm like what's my five year plan What's my 10 year plan And I was like oh you know I I was like I don't wanna play Um So so I took this class and then at the end of the class we had a show and this booker for the coffee store actually saw me and he booked me for the comedy store and it like began like a whole career that I was not anticipating at all Um But I absolutely love that's awesome Yeah I I mean I had no idea how funny you were I I knew you were funny I knew you are funny person You are you are you are you produced so many projects And you were so like like you got it done It was it was it was just you were just such a go getter and all of a sudden we just found out she's funny No no No Well yes maybe that's for you What I thought I was walking around just being funny all day every day And then it was like not a surprise at all It was a complete surprise You know what it was I think there was just a uh you know you know how to wear different hats like you know how to wear like the hat that needs to be worn when it needs to be worn I take that you can put it on But like so when we came to see you I mean I well this is like now will be the third time that I see you at a show But like uh I literally was like snorting and almost peed my pants It was so funny and the people around me were looking at me like is she OK Like it was funny but like I was like literally like it hit every funny bone in my body and I couldn't sit still Yeah it was so good That's great That's great So good I mean you killed it Um I I wrote a show called The Charlotte Chronicles and that's how and I got connected and you played the best version of a Brentwood mom ever and she kills it She kills it So Well it's so funny And my brother said to me So I wrote the whole thing My brother said to me he goes oh the show is really funny He's like you know who's super funny Oh here we go Uh He was like Selena and I was like she is incredible This is a scene where she actually fires me Um And those guys OK where I get the courage to say like I actually want to pursue my dreams and um you know you just like kill it It's so good This is not the scene where I mean you've killed every scene but like the best scene I think was you standing outside with your um fake son your TV son And oh I love the pearls I just noticed that the pearl which is just like the pearl shoes that you have Um But this is just like yeah this is a year and a half ago Um And you're so good and look at the face like the faces that you give are just incredible And I'm just trying to like not be afraid because like because you were so so good like you became you embodied uh that person and it was terrifying to me Thank you Yeah you're welcome I actually felt like II I would like had to I was like I feel so rude We went like really rude for us and I was like I was being really rude to Michelle that we'd kind of be like Michelle are you Ok Sorry I was like yeah No no no I'm not Ok And I was like I'm not ok because it was I wrote this very much based off of my own life experiences and like what it was like to work for somebody like that It was very jarring to say the least Um But yeah you just killed it And so my brother was just like yeah this show is so funny He's like but Selena she's funny And I was like yeah she's super funny We'll have to like you know have Kayla in uh the second season It could be like the new uh the new mom on the block that like wants to share share the nanny That's good Yeah And I'm like no I moved on and that's apparently like I love I'd love to see Kayla actually as a sassy mom because I think you're so kind and I'm not gonna be really funny to see you be rude I would love to do it I would love to see both of you pushing strollers and drinking wine like down the street and like just talking about your nannies just like a bottle of rose in the cup holder or just like just literally having the rose and then like taking your baby's like bottle and like dumping it and just like I mean we're all of the above I think it's great No I'm inspired when I sit across from like people like you because you're just like so talented you can feel it It's it's vibrational it's it's it's like palpable It's so fun And um you guys have this special coming up that you're filming on the 28th Um for those that uh are you tickets right now Ok Ok Um uh we want to play a game with you before you go if you're cool with that Um we have a new game It's called Pencil Nose and we feel like because you're both so funny Um you would uh be really great to play with Um I want to uh just let people know where they can go buy tickets right now as they're watching where can they go buy tickets So you can head to Selena Ringel or Kayla Crawford's Instagram page where you can find our event right Just click on the event right And you can buy tickets there I love them I love the hand gesture like Vanna White you can buy tickets there Yeah Also you you can also DM US and we might your tickets So I mean I'm just saying like you got the plug right here You want I like heated like she's in DM US and I'm like sweating My husband's like why are you getting all of these d after buying tickets Oh my God I love that Your husband would would Yeah Yeah for sure I know that you dated her husband for a hot second Yeah it was a very hot second Like very small not like that not like that I mean like very very short is what I'm coming out of my mouth You just repeat what you what you meant Ok So we're so if you can't like get a sense of what the show is going to be it's gonna be super fun and um a really fun time I'm really excited Uh Let's uh let's play a game or a card What should we do first Let pull a card Ok Ok So these are tarot cards that I got in Joshua tree Um I uh had a very bougie experience but these were like super hippy to me and they spoke to me and on our very first show Kyle pulled a card for the show so I guess you guys can ask whatever question you want Um If it's not positive we do not accept it So I don't know if you want to ask about your upcoming show or like where it's like is it gonna stream where we want it to Well no because I feel like that's a yes or no I feel like it should be a little more Um um Yeah tell us something uh incredible that's gonna happen for us with this special I love it I chill OK let's go Do we do it together Yeah go for it OK Which card That one that one looks good Yeah I love it We've never done this before Oh wait there's two There's two though Ok All right Remember if it's not positive we don't accept it Ok That sounds like it Ok So what numbers are they Um 35 and 7 35 and seven Ok A deep honoring is present Give and feel great Thanks now for whatever blessings have arrived or are en route to you Now join this card uh invite you to share your devotion or to outwardly express gratitude to someone or something for its presence in your life I would like to express gratitude I'm gonna go ahead and do it very good It's been a really beautiful journey Thank you I feel the same way Yeah I'm excited I feel like I call Caleb more than anyone in my life 100% That'd be so weird I don't want Yeah this is so
