

#HappinessTips - The Miracle Of Presence

When you tap into an in turn on to your own presence to divine presence to spiritual presence within you When you tap into an in turn on to infinite eternal non-physical spiritual energy inside of you that peaceful aliveness or that alive Peacefulness that exists inside of you That is you suddenly a number of things happen A number of miracles occur The first miracle is that you discover peace happiness joy and love immediately When your mind is quiet cool calm and collected right When you're not thinking all of a sudden you discover the peace the happiness the joy and the love that you thought only the future could bring That's the first thing The second miracle that happens is that as you tap into presence and by presence I mean that presence which has a capital p God life source you know spiritual energy divine energy life intelligence When you tap into that presence you not only experience peace love happiness and joy immediately you also experience the secondary sources of that presence or of that patience which are improved health improved success improved abundance you know better relationships And so my encouragement today is to be more patient and by more patient I do not mean that you should wait longer I mean that you should wait even less than you're waiting now And you do that by tapping into presence presence with a capital P