From haunted hangouts to sinfully fun finds This is your guide to all things Halloween the L A unscripted way from Delusion Los Angeles And I predict a Halloween home run the costumes the make up the core from creepy to cool Are you ready to have some scale of fun Welcome to scripted I'm with my teammate J Beens and live day to and when it comes to Halloween we like to think we're in a league of our own I love that I love that we're far from rock Just call us the Pomona That's good because today we're in East L A county taking a swing at Spooktacular Haunted Mansion known as Delusion Los Angeles part interactive hor theater part Spectral So if you're a fan of right this is the way in but we can't promise you'll make it out Can you handle it Hello my Pugsley Today we welcome L A unscripted to delusion Delusion is a bit hard to describe but basically you're living inside of a horror movie It's an interactive play it's theater at its core and you have to do certain actions to move the story forward A mysterious author has gone missing Her stories have come to life bleeding into each other like spilled the ink This is our ninth season and it's about an author that has created the entire delusion series You must venture into a world of fear and fantasy to track her down Well well well hello there ladies Three years ago we created this character named Manny Manners He's a possessed wicked little doll is very prim and proper that actually you can speak with and you can pick up and you can talk to him live because there's something inside of him that is speaking to you Can I join your team I throw a wicked curveball Oh my God Wait where are you going I just want to be friends This is the Phillips mansion in Pomona and this was the home of Lou and Esther Phillips and Louis was like the richest man in L A in the late 19th century And this place is a historic landmark The historical society of Pomona owns it And then we came in three years ago and created this whole experience here Yes it's absolutely haunted I've felt it coming through here I know other people have felt it late at night even during the day Basically this entire mansion is called the Spectral soiree So there's a party going on in here You have the dark arts theater which is like magicians and dancers and you have a puppet room It is so dark in here I can't even see where I'm going a ghost in the attic that you can actually interact with live which has never been done anywhere I call to you the dead Iray Oh my goodness Um to go home the VIP experience is super cool too because you actually get to go to the back mansion play a part in a scene as the undead rising She died right there Oh my God I got into this originally in Chicago I would take over my parents' house when I was younger As I said I didn't really like haunted houses but I love scary movies like the All Men the shining So I wrote this this amateur play inside the house and my parents stayed in a hotel for the weekend and I just invited neighbors and the neighborhood just came in and they went through this 10 minute play that we wrote that moved through the house I love the idea of taking people on adventures That's kind of what I've been doing since I was a kid I mean nothing like dilution You will be swallowed into the story and the experience and you will be a kid again no matter what whether you're 12 or we've had people come we had a group of women who are like 85 almost 90 come through the show together So we get that whole range It's for it's for everybody in between So it's this whole evening Of like two or three hours to just have Halloween fun Um did we lose Dana to the underworld No no I'm here I'm just trying to change this channel to L A unscripted but these ghouls aren't having it Oh how creepy They're moving their heads There goes Dana terrorizing TV S everywhere Speaking of terror we recently visited a tunnel of terror and bonus I got to be a part of the scare squad This is so spooky This is really good This is not we're not even in the tunnel yet and I'm already feeling terrorized Hi I'm Veronica Young and I'm the creator of the haunted car wash to lift her The haunted car wash is exactly what it sounds like we're at car would car wash right now at Lakewood and you're going to get a Halloween the experience when you drive through here to get your car wash Ok Well since my car was dirty I figured I might as well drive through and check out the experience Hi I'm Brian Sponberg owner of car wood car wash in Lakewood I thought the idea was so cool and they've done it in Orange County and never in L A county And I thought this would be the perfect partnership to bring it to you know everyone in Los Angeles So we have installed lights and fog and we've brought out props that once the sun sets this will just be transformed into a whole different ambiance here We started in 2020 Everything shut down Halloween was canceled and I encouraged my boyfriend long We should do something for the community Let's do something for the kids and their families so they could drive through and at least give them something to do And both of us together we came up with the idea of why don't we do it at a car wash It started from there and this is our fourth year So you're still gonna get a great express car wash It's our very best car wood classic car wash So don't worry your windows will still be spotless and your tires will still be shiny You'll have some fun before you get into the wash You'll definitely be scared You might scream if someone jumps on the roof of the car part of the screen What was that What was that Oh I think it was just my rearview mirror Get me out of here now that my car is squeaky clean I think I'm going to go join the scare squad Let's go We have about 18 actors We ask everyone to get creative and a lot of them to have their own personal characters that they portray I am happy the snuff star The entire hunt is like a baseball team You don't have just pitchers you don't have this first baseman You have everyone Every single person is a vital part We have people like giants who the standard looking timid and mutes who just distract people We have louds and clowns people who talk Grant's over there He's a slider He's mostly low to the ground He's mostly close to the ground because he needs to pop up as fast as he can He needs to get on the flower as fast as he can Where Don't worry it's a free gap Jasmine Get over here She's doing amazing Look at all right We're done with this car Jasmine If you want to dress up and wash my car I'll pay you double that That's wishful thinking That was the way But we are just getting started Our Halloween hang out a delusion Los Angeles will be back before the runner on first can steal second base by the way Who's Gina Davis You you who you I hurry Hurry My pretty pud please Time is running out If you want to play your part go to enter delusion dot com to get your tickets now Ah dark halls twisted corners and cocktails that conjure chaos Cheers to Halloween at Delusion Los Angeles Welcome back to all unscripted I'm your host Share it with my best D on and time We are anything but clueless about Halloween because we love the 31st so much And this haunted mansion really sets the mo what the excuse me this outfit should we say a fashion victim or ensemble challenge Totally by the way way Harsh time All right But you're right She probably could use a makeover just like my house for Halloween And guess what We found the coolest decorator who can help turn your nest into Spook Central There's a coffin magical holiday designs is a commercial residential interior exterior decorating company for events Halloween and Christmas We service all of Southern California Events of all sizes small medium and large corporate and non corporate residential weddings party planners birthday parties you name it We do it You know how much I love Halloween I know you do I'm a theme designer and I love to theme whatever the event is it could be themed Halloween themed Christmas themed wedding theme event The theme is set the stage for the look feel of your guests as they come in So I think that's super super important This is so cool I discuss with my team what my vision is and then my team takes my vision and we put that together in the warehouse we load the truck up and then we get it here We start staging it We have a little team meeting in the morning to discuss where things will go and they go at it Everybody has their own duties Me as the designer I just oversee and help make sure everything's where it's supposed to be These lanterns are insane Today I created the Dracula's layer We've got a lot of candles very moody very authentic very Dracula Pro tips For the average person If you have a skeleton dress him in a costume if you have a skeleton give him a bottle of whiskey If you have skeletons can do a lot of things They can climb they can sit they can kneel they can dig they can be in the ground create that scene and then that creates the interest of what you're doing and makes everybody give you that Wow effect I have a great team They did this in like two hours Happy Halloween All the decorating It never gets old Your house always looks so good that I think we have a lot more to explore right here under the roof here Delusion I think we have to take another break as if you're right time We saw so much more to come after the break So don't wonder too far especially in the dark funny original or classic We love Halloween costumes here at L A unscripted So t is all your photos and let us see all your beautiful outfits best Can you believe it's been almost 30 years since clueless first came out Yeah That's almost as frightening as the nightmares here Delusion OK No bones about it But if you love Halloween as much as we do you will die for this place that serves spooky all year round A lot of coffee shops they look so boring inside and there's no excitement There's no color And so you know the idea came to me and I said I love horror and putting horror and coffee together It just it was perfect You know it's really scary Me without my coffee in the morning And you know on this show we like to creep it real and we found the perfect place to do that in North Hollywood and I just found my little baby Oh my God What a sweet sweet little baby Coffee is a or the coffee shop year round We are Halloween and Spooky 365 days a year And our coffee shop attracts four lovers who writers for directors coffee lovers So we bring all those people together Ok let's try I got so excited What are you So we got the Scissor Hands latte which is the chocolate and then this one is the candy man My staff and I actually come up with the drinks together Then we try out different flavors and I like to say that our coffee is specialty hand crafted lattes the candy man and this is our hands are the most popular So it's a white chocolate honey latte with cinnamon dusting and Caramel Driel This is so good I've grown up with watching horror films with my mom and my dad my mom especially she's been a huge horror fan ever since she was pregnant with me Yeah And so I I grew up watching like saw you know the

Exorcist and scream like 76 year old me I've always been obsessed with Halloween and like just the concept of horror and horror films horror books we really go all out for a Halloween menu And this year it's the tricks and treats menu And we have a permanent menu That's our signature menu And those drinks are here to stay forever So I tried to dress kind of Freddy Kruger is for you Do you have a drink that would kind of fit that theme We do We have a nightmare on Maple Street It's a maple cinnamon latte It's funny because the person that sold me this coffee shop he was my mentor for a while I told him about the idea and I said you know I'm going to have a horror mural I want to do a horror shopping shop He was like what are you kidding me Like no one is going to come to that You need to cater to everyone you need to Children you need to cater to families and I knew what I wanted or is who I am And I really believe in this idea and I proved him wrong He called me like a few months ago and he's like hey you got me you know so he's like Apple Pie alimony We do get a lot of producers directors and writers that come in here This is where they find their inspiration for their work And we have families with you know little five year old kids that come in with their Chucky doll with their Sam doll And it's really awesome to see that Like it really did become a family coffee shop at the end of the day who love families who love horror So it it just all worked out for us What's your favorite horror movie of all time My favorite horror movie is The Ring Something about it The cinematography the girl Sara the antagonist just creeps me out so much and I can't get over that And so that by far my favorite All right And if that didn't give you goose bumps check out this next story of a makeup artist who put us under his spell with his incredible skills when people are like are you excited for Halloween I'm like well every day is Halloween to makeup artist You're always playing with blood you're always playing with certain kinds of body parts and limbs and making people look like what people want to look like on Halloween essentially Hi I'm Lawrence Mercado I'm an Emmy Nominated special effects makeup artist for American horror story 1984 10 years ago I was in a touring band that was doing really well but it was just makeup kind of took over and make up was something that I really wanted to do for a living Why not make something that doesn't exist You know you bring it into the world and it's from an idea or it's from a director's idea or it's from a producer's idea They come to us because they want to be able to see this thing come to life You make it exist I had an idea of these things that we got from RB FX which is a uh special effects prosthetics company in Burbank I immediately was like I need somebody that can fit inside this kind of like tin can that I'm pretty much putting together But we have to like kind of put the ears downward so that they just hit flush against the head Like I wanted it to look like someone did this as a as a toy but also as a beaten up robot that nobody come in contact with for a while I'm gonna probably just tack a couple of spots just because this thing is so big I don't really want it and it's just photos So I'm about to place this headpiece so we can start this makeup So before I finish the paint job we're gonna try this piece on there that I put onto a shirt So I wanted to make it look like it was uh messy soldering I need to I need to cut it here to sort it to clip in We're gonna paint in all of this stuff which isn't much really We're gonna pop in an eye and then we're good to go I'll take a couple of photos with that you wanna Are you ready Julian My name is V Nixie I'm classically trained on stage So there's a lot of over expressing in that There's a lot of movement training that I have gone through in pro motion capture classes as well I trust you because you can get anybody and put them in a make up But they're not going to do what a creature actor does They're not going to do what V does There's either choosing it from the concept or choosing it because I already know and trust and love working with the person You stare at that sculpture you stare at those pre painting pieces like you look at them for a really long time and then when you see them finally on somebody you would hope that they are able to bring that creature to life and give it that extra push Horror story was one of those shows that you watch and you're like one day one day I wanna be on that or at least just go work on it So for me I still thought every single day that somebody's gonna come over and tap me on the shoulder and be like dude you gotta go like you're not supposed to be here you gotta go I didn't expect to be anywhere where I am now a at all So you just you just want to make the best art you can make and you try and you hope to the high heavens that it comes out the way you guys all wanted it to It's all about the details just like every nook and cranny of this mansion That is all the time we have for this party Thank you so much to delusion Los Angeles for letting us go off script and remember send your suggestions because you never know where we end up next Good night Ok Who has the keys to the Jeep Not share She's a virgin Who can't drive Did no one tell you you're never leaving in that You're staying here forever We're gonna be buddies Uh
