You've met her before My friend Emma Heming Willis is here to spread some healthy vibes with Coco Baba Coba Here at L A unscripted We are all obsessed for real with Coco Baba But for those who don't know Emma what is Coco Lava So Coco Baba is my brand that I founded Um So when I was pregnant with my first daughter I was looking for a body care line that was safe effective throughout my pregnancy I went back to an old family favorite which was coconut oil I used it throughout my whole pregnancy and I came out stretch mark free And why that was incredible to me is because I'm totally stretch mark prone So I said you know what I need to come up with a whole line around this hero product around this hero ingredient coconut oil And that's how Coco Baba was born Really incredible to see that once someone buys Coco Bubba they're hooked OK So for the Mother's Day Bundle we have put together four of our best sellers So our new product is our wash So first we're going to start with the coconut jasmine body wash We wanted to sort of have a whole well rounded line So you wash you we really focus on the body Every everybody deserves to be mother You don't have to be pregnant You don't have to be a mom But the coconut oil in it is just so great and nurturing and safe and hydrating and all the things I don't really love anything that's too fragranced And what's great about this We don't use fragrance but we use natural aromatics Next we do the scrub This is the coconut oil scrub We use the whole coconut So we use the husk of the coconut We have no micro beads It's not too abrasive and it just washes off and sort of gets your skin prepped for moisture which comes next So this one is a little a little more fragranced I will say that but by aromatics now that we're going into spring um lotion I just feel like is just a little lighter not so heavy All right here we go at least there will be moisture And I was looking at Emma's hands and they're like so dewy and glossy I mean just look at what the oil like But can you see the difference like just from there Like what the oil does Emma thank you for bringing this world exclusive of the body wash to us The Mother's Day bundle is these four products and you're so generous You have a code I do It's style smart for 30% off this whole Mother's Day bundle which really is a great savings That might be a record could be And don't worry we're going to keep the momentum going with more discount codes coming out The special L A in Mother's Day edition from the mayor and Beverly Hills will be back before you can spell mom backwards and forwards Get it get it Ok I want lotion All right we're getting ready for Mother's Day at the amazing mayor in Beverly Hills Welcome back to everyone I'm de we have our entire L A you girl power policy here So
