

Here's Why BravoCon is Bittersweet For Reza Farahan | BravoCon 2023 | Bravo

Hello from Bravo verse live stage My name is Michael Rapport We are here day three at Bravo Con 2023 in Vegas Big Hello to everyone watching on Peacock Bravo TV dot com and all the Bravo social media channels I have to say Bravo is a lot like the mafia once you're in you can never get out you can never get out So let's bring back some of our favorites some of the greatest of all times Bravo throwbacks panel here with Kelly Benzo Kristen Dykman Mercedes Jed and Riza Farrah Yeah What can I say It's been a great weekend I'll start with you Kelly how how has it been to be back in front of your Bravo fans Well first of all I've never been to a Bravo Con So this is my first Bravo Con and Michael Thank you You're doing such a great job Thank you because I'm happy to be here too I almost started crying because I'm just so moved by all of you guys Your enthusiasm your love for me You've been through there with me from the beginning of Housewives and the Ice Age of 2009 episode you know season two to now And you guys have just been so incredible Go to sleep and I'm like so moved I love you guys I really love you Thank you How how has it been for you Kristen It's so much fun I love seeing all the Bravo lebr the other night at the Bravos was surreal I was obsessed with all the awards I strived to win one of the awards one day It was so fun Everybody is so awesome Well everybody's happy to hear you Ha happy to see you MJ Mercedes I I mean what what what what has it been like You are so beloved You've always been beloved We watch your journey What has it been like to be in front of your fans And this entire week and this experience Well first of all I have to go back to Kelly She hasn't aged a day since we saw her on TV What That is incredible Is it not Absolutely Looks fantastic Um Yeah and it's all about the bonds It's all about the memories Reza and I were very nostalgic people So it's no accident We're here to like remember all of the things that have changed our lives forever right Yes Yes And keep it spicy and spill all the tea of the weekend right here right now Reza Reza I'm gonna I'm gonna start with the question uh uh that I know everybody in Las Vegas Uh uh and everybody in the Bravo universe once asked 00 what's up with the mustache Uh are we bringing the mustache back Are we not Have we retired The mustache We missed that stash It's it's when we think of mustache You think of Burt Reynolds Tom Selleck and Riza Farrah So where where's the stash Do you guys want me to bring it back I guess it might need to make a return Oh no you can grow a mustache in half a day People take weeks It's like it's like like in the afternoon we could have it totally If you're here this evening I watch what happens live I might have a stash Don't forget he also prided himself on like just the wind has to blow by his penis and he'll get an erection Persian How do we go from my mustache to an erection Instant growth instant growth Um I Reza how has it been for you this weekend You know uh uh to come back and be in front of the people and the the the love that you guys get you know I'm watching it you know all and from afar and you know walking through the boots and the fans Well what has it been like for you It is definitely lots of emotion It's like being at a cookout a family reunion you know cities and I came up with a lot of these people I've known Kelly for a long time I've known Kristen for a long time We've seen each other at different things It's amazing to be back on the flip side It's also like getting a paper cut and having people pour lemon juice in it because everyone's like where when is she coming back And all these people have shows that you're walking around with no show and you know it's hard I'm keeping at 100 with you Rapoport Well listen I know everybody II I don't know about the politics or whatever with the ba ba ba ba ba me as an actor I've been on shows that have gone away I know everybody would love to have the shaws of sunset Thank you guys Thank you guys Um MJ what what is what is one of the things that most of the fans provo Khan in your everyday life Uh You know people come up to you and say and remind you about what one moment or one line or one thing that they talk to you about most like uh me for me Anything regarding the Yeah I mean you know the show stuff Everybody wants to know How's Tommy and Reza How's the baby It's a big answer Everyone is doing so much better I'm so glad to say we are all healed up all healed up all healed up Yes champs and and Reza have met I've made him throw up by accident by giving him too much Because it's hard to resist his gorgeous cheeks and his sweet face And so when he wants more you just want to give it to him You're the best You're the best uncle honestly Thank you Well I I know for me to see you guys uh uh you know being friendly and loving because that was out of all the shows and beefs that have gone down that was one of the most palpable uh uh um you know upsetting uh uh you know uh beef whatever you want to call it that you guys had So I'm so happy to have you guys with on a panel and that you're you're getting along in real life Let me ask you a question Do you think that although it sucks that the show is on I'll I'll say it's on pause Do you think that the show uh you know chilling out for a little bit Helped you guys uh uh you know maybe get back to to the natural roots of your friendship with your family Everything is organic So when we hang out it's because we want to when we spend time when we communicate you don't have to think oh she's doing this because of production for the show whatever we do in real life now it's just pure and it's great And my favorite thing is like the way that we come together when we talk it feels so good like the heart wants what the heart wants there's no camera waiting It's real Right Well I know again I'm so happy you guys are getting along and your family is getting along and everybody loves Tommy So I'm happy that you guys are you know being AAA friendly and family and loving towards each other Kelly let me ask you a question You're walking around Uh uh you're you're engaged Yes you're engaged We confirm that at the other Look at that ring It's Michael That ring Don't be fooled by the rocks that she's got She's just she's just Kelly from the block Kelly Um what has been the uh uh the the one thing throughout the years uh this weekend uh that people remind you the most At what moment do they talk to you the most about I think Scary Island is something that everybody is obsessed with Thank you so much I did name the episode Hello Did you really I did Of course I did That's right I know a little bit about my people wanna know Do you have the horse lamp and by people I mean me is the lamp So the Metropolitan Museum of Art gave me a resin horse that I have in my apartment Yes I still have It's spectacular spectacular It's this draft horse and resin you can pick it up but you can also sit on it It's bananas Yeah it's bananas and I have like from heart wraps and then I have a Fendi saddle It's very very c she's a supermodel y'all Of course the Fendi and the saddle are going to be lit and Chris So what's the one thing that people come up to you up at Bravo Con that people remind you the most about or even in real life Because you know once you're in Bravo like you could it could be like a Tuesday a rainy Tuesday in October and people are going to talk to you about it So what's the one thing that comes up most consistently The one thing without fail is the glass in the face I think I was the original glass in the face Right Yes But yeah Treading water in a lake I wasn't concerned about I was more concerned about the taste of blood Yes So Yes Yes Ok Ok And and what do you watch other Bravo shows And did you continue to watch my which ones And what's your faith I took two years off I'm not gonna lie for nothing Yes I just I took a two year off situation because it's also like once you're off then you know you're still kind of a bit of the storyline So it's like I needed a minute and then I went back I've been back with a vengeance lately It's so fun I'm obsessed with below deck my twin brother he's like we should just take all the kids and go to below deck and go on a boat together I was like yes I think legacy should go below deck But we were on a a that's a that's like a a mix within a mix within a mix and you get like legacy Uh And then you do like a legacy stamp on a below deck Like and that would be insane You bring like bring back a captain who's like that would be crazy But then Whitney is a really good friend of mine We've known each other for a long time And so when he started Southern Charm he was like I'm going to start this great show So it wouldn't be so cool to have like a mix of all the like like the super super cast of like men and women and like you know doing going away somewhere right So I know because we talked about it Uh either on your podcast or my podcast Every every everybody everybody who in here doesn't have a podcast raise your hand You guys have a podcast Rizzo Rizzo What shows do you watch as a fan So I am in Tink Man's Court right now I'm on my hiatus right now It feels really painful and it's hard I can't do it I understand I understand Well I actually think the best idea is to have Shaws and Southern Charm and Vander We need to do a non housewives alternate Bring all the guys she can come of the boys not the girls trip Let's do that Come on
