housewife what would your tag line be Oh wait wait I don't know what I had mine Hold on Of course you have one Mine's already out there bro I forgot mine Hold on I don't know how to come back to that I do remember mine I don't know how the other guys if you envy my wife The reason they call me Big Frank what was it that I don't know how the other guys rank but there's a reason they call me Big Frank Big Pop one Mine was if you envy my wife he forgot he forgot the rest Joe literally has the worst memory If you envy my wife you envy me I don't feel envy my life my life Oh that's a good one Food You got one I don't know I'm thinking I can't I can't come up with 10 Mad Rachel you got a team So we are house husbands That's why we don't get a tag That's right You get off of that pretty easily All right That's fair enough Great question from you two I'm gonna give him I'm still going to give you a hard time I got to hear it from you guys Give it up for the lady Next question for these gentlemen Hi guys I'm Emily from New York Emily And I just have to say you guys are the best husbands on Bravo Thank you Thank you very much Thank you My question is I wanted to know how do you guys stay friends even if your wives aren't or friendships change throughout the seasons Great You and do your wives care if you guys remain friends they care That's become that's that's become more and more difficult But I gotta be honest with you we we still try to keep everything aside All right whatever happens between the wives you know it has got involved a little more than it used to Uh but we we we try to keep the wives separate from the guys Thank you We remember we're 99.9% alike Don't focus on the difference Exactly That's a really good really good quote Next up Hi I'm Danielle from Saint Louis Um obviously Bill Jennifer and Teresa are best friends So I'm sure you're hanging a lot with Louie and I'm wondering if that has influenced your relationship with Joe at all Like are you guys not as close as you used to be Because I love the dynamic between you and Joe and I hope Lou is not interfering with that You can have many friendships in life And as long as you understand that we're not supposed to be identical not each relationship is supposed to be measured equally You can still have a good time but you still love Joe more than Louis Of course he is Teresa's brother buddy He had to ask permission to be here today 100% had to give him permission Joe You feel the same way though What you feel the same way as Bill about you know like is it hard to maintain friendships with the with the guys Because you know what guys are guys women are gonna women I love women without women We're nothing in this world but they bicker a lot right They bicker a little bit more than men Men were cool We're chill like our wives are fighting nowhere and we hang out we have a drink I don't we don't let the we don't let them get involved unless you know you did really something disrespectful to our wives right But we really don't get involved There's we always stay boys always stay But I will say since I've been on there hasn't it's been separate It's been two sides I've never really seen everybody never really seen all the whole interaction Time will heal wounds I love it He got the quotes Just pray baby Hey Jessica from Raleigh North Carolina But I will say the first half of my life I was in north in New Jersey So I know you guys you guys you guys that's the right way to say to anybody on the panel here Um What advice would you give to a younger more impressionable person who's looking to get into the entertainment industry Follow your heart If your heart is in it you gotta do it Well just know that just know if you get into the the limelight if you get into the public eye everything everything is shown to everybody So well the my biggest advice if you get into the reality world just be who you are Don't fake it don't act just be you And that's what you told me I told I tell that to everybody that comes on I said if you the world they know you and they'll pick you out in a second and they know who exactly who you are So be who you are and if they love you they love you I mean it's it's so true You got to be authentic The audience will sniff out something that's not authentic immediately They just know anything that's fake because you guys are so smart great answers Can I have a hat You would like the house is broke the house is broke and that is that is a Joe Gorga fault We have the next audience question I believe from from what's up First of all I feel like their family up there I adore all of them from afar Some of them I know better than others I want to ask you guys and specifically Gorga how are you building your wealth Is it through real estate Because I see you building those apartment buildings and I'm just rooting you on because I know those rent checks are coming in and how are you guys diversifying the cash flow Let the audience and myself know because I wanna be you know I wanna have that pocket like All y'all up there Uh Definitely real estate I I uh I like passive income I say every month Is it my birthday It's because you want to have money coming in no matter what if you're not working So creating a income record how do you all say so handsome Finish that too So definitely apartment buildings is is what I do for a living and uh Frank Frank how else do you guys build your despite what everyone thinks I'm not jobless and living off Dolores's coattails that's what everybody does Um And obviously I'm a disbarred attorney but but that that was never my only business Uh I do real estate as well I have a construction company but uh the last two years I've also gotten out into the cannabis industry big time So in in Jersey we are recreational legal and we are thriving So knock on wood bill Any tips primary profession just got to work Despite what the internet says I'm not a drug dealer I actually own a parking management company and I have a tile business Despite what the internet says Cyber bullies That could be the start of anything on Bravo ever All right guys I really appreciate you guys give it up for all these house They are so sexy guys Keep watching all today You can recap the past two days on Bravo TV dot com and of course peacock at 5:30 p.m. our braver panels will be airing Thanks so much for coming
