So what Bravo Cast would you like to see living together in a summer winter house that you guys who would you bring with you Like the housewives have an ultimate girls trip and they ask who do you want to bring Who would you bring to the next house You let's get you back out there You guys are on it Who else We get a baby We'll figure out I would like to see us in a house together I want to cross over I would love you to come to Martha's Vineyard Please Not 100% But when you once you come you can't leave Like no you're stuck you're stuck That's just what did um a yacht trip on below deck Like what if we were on there It's not serving what I'm I'm a guest No no no You know what you're doing you know what they're doing I would love that Fun fact Katie would in the morning be like what do you want to drink What can I get you I'm like you're off duty It's a bad habit I was old making cocktails when I was like 3 a.m. Just actually by the time that I was just walking around with a bottle of like tequila But yeah you were just pouring shots in people's mouths I love that for you That sounds so fun I'm there So I want to ask living with someone you're dating on a house that's being filmed How is that Do you think it's better to go in as a couple Do you think it's better to meet someone possibly named Tom Uh or do you think it's better to just go single and stay single I think it's more fun I don't know anything else Like same here I go dating Like you guys had a process Like we were like you also have to be I feel like I get the best of both worlds I get Kyle but then I also get to live vicariously through all my single friends So it's a lot of fun So I'm having having someone to sleep with that night isn't the worst unless he wakes you up Yes I have to say this season I kind of had the complete opposite Um I really was like a girls girls this summer We had a lot of fun Um Even though I was you know not drinking we were lit 1000% So you knew when you were filming Oh I knew you didn't tell me six months tomorrow Yeah The way that timing adds up 100% But the girls had fun We had fun Nothing Now Lindsay and Danielle we are so happy to see you guys being friends again Give it all Yes Come poo's back Tell us about how that happened Just give us the details So we went to lunch before summer It was after the reunion before summer we had like a four hour lunch We had a great reunion He was like well determine what you guys want to be together And I think we decided that we wanted to work on our friendship So we did So we went we talked about our feelings and emotions as women do Um And then we just started rebuilding from there We you know went into the summer and you know slowly just started kind of like moving and that was so hard to like keep a boundary like you know I don't want to let her back in Totally We kind of just like fell into it very naturally I love you so much like all of a sudden like our old mannerisms and similarities started coming back and then it just like you know kept going and you know it it couldn't quit each other I can't quit You Lindsay I can't quit you either Now Jasmine congratulations on your pregnancy Oh thank you I was pregnant last Bravo Con Um Are you having a great time And are there any Bravo moms here that you want to get advice from Ok I feel like Madison we had a really great conversation the other day I don't know I feel very lucky this pregnancy has been pretty easy No morning sickness I'm like when is the other shoe going to drop Um But it's been I have a lot of energy I'm still still having fun still going to all the after parties so we'll see y'all there Um but Madison I saw this last episode of Southern Charm with her and her son I'm not gonna lie It made me want to cry because I'm having a boy and I'm just like is this what it's gonna be like I think Sonia and then Doctor Nicole who are also pregnant will be across the room and just raise our little mocktails and water So that's really cute But there's a lot of great moms and relationships and sisterhoods in this bravo verse And I'm just very grateful to learn from everybody in whatever capacity That was an amazing answer By the way I want to know who's messy charter guests or your winter house castmates The winter house classmates myself included I did participate a lot I think I went to bed early because I was sick throughout Winter House These guys were doing the weirdest stuff in the kitchen late at night The videos that are in the group chat between the goldfish and the fruit ninja It's the law the law messy messy messy mess I agree with you I saw the goldfish on your Instagram K I was like what's going on here We did reenact that in New York recently as well So OK we're making it a thing I will It's a goldfish thing Bria what was most unexpected about your time on summer house Martha's Vineyard Most unexpected I would just say the relationship between people getting together like I would say summer and Alex I didn't see it coming But uh that was very unexpected and then you know yeah I'm just gonna leave it at that Um they had a lot of similarities but you know we were looking for more hookups and you know trying to play cupid no shade but playing cupid is exhausting It is exhausting But I guess like just the hook up because I came in in a relationship she's was married at the time So we weren't sure how it would play out and then they hit it off and uh the rest is history I guess Is it though It's the history to be continued Maybe to be continued Find out tune in Alex is like our brother So we love him But
