been waiting for the Queens the Housewives of Beverly Hills So let's go ahead and welcome them to the stage You ready All right let's give a big Bravo com Welcome to Anne Marie Wiley the newest housewife Dere Can Erica J Rich Garel Sutton Strap and Crystal Kina makes a noise for our housewives of Beverly All right ladies you all look stunning as always bringing the glamour we love Let's just dive right in Ok Season 12 Tons of drama We love you all Thanks for the memories season 13 Let's get into it If you had to sum up this new season in one word what would you choose One word We'll start at the left or the right Who wants to kick it off Crystal or Anne Marie I'll start You know what I'm gonna say The season is raw You guys a lot of stuff happened It's all really traumatic or really real A lot of emotion too right It was it was raw You guys will say raw deri um cohesive Oh cohesive Care to why Cohesive That's one word Jury you watch if you want an award not cohesive y'all it was cohesive OK Erica better Better K Worse I know That's right You better speak OK I'll go with stressful worse or stressful OK Copy that garc electrifying OK OK Sutton I'm gonna go with fascinating fascinating and crystal I'm gonna say fresh fresh and we are gonna take it easy on you You lost your voice in all of this bravo con excitement Right Yes But we've got some hot tea for you Yes OK As I make you talk more Take your time Rusa All right now obviously Renee is gone now So we want to just dive in when it comes to you know shaking things up Who is the person who's kind of stirring that pot this season A little bit more than the other ladies Sh Shut up Sutton Sutton So have you told on yourself No y'all all have spoons in this pot All of you Sutton If you had to choose one who stirred it up a little more than the others who would you say Kyle Kyle But um I was just reacting to Sutton Now y'all are throwing out Sutton care to share Why Um Well I mean this feels so funny to talk about this I um I didn't expect to have anybody come you know bring up stuff about my marriage on camera Uh and I wasn't ready to talk about you know something that was very difficult I didn't even know how to navigate it without a camera So I was just trying to figure it all out and it was just when it first came up it was it just really was very difficult for me and my family So that was what threw me off in the beginning So ok Ok Well thank you for sharing that And we will of course talk a little bit more about your journey that we'll see in season 13 But before we dive deep into the specifics we've got some familiar faces returning to the cast this season We've got Camille we've got Cynthia we've got Denise Richards So who wants to get in there with what we can expect What plot twist you didn't see coming when these ladies came back on the scene Well Denise showed up and she had some unfinished business apparently with the wrong person only she couldn't figure out what the unfinished business was for a while She wasn't her most articulate Let's say that it was a it was a big night and Erica I wanted to ask you about that we've even seen in the trailer for this season right You two exchanged some words It feels very heated What was your experience of of her so much as you can share without giving too much away Uh Kyle had a dinner party and it was a THC infused dinner party with a really great chef And if you haven't had the experience you should because it's actually very pleasant Denise came and she very clearly tried to pick a fight with me but she kept saying things like go watch the show you know what you did and you were sitting actually you were sitting right here I was like she said roll back the tape We can't watch the show Number one After the last four years I have not seen her talk to Denise I've had a lot going on in my life and I didn't quite understand I think she has bigger beef with Brandy Lisa or Teddy before me And then when she kept saying roll back the tape you know go watch the show Ok And I just apologized and I said I I I'm I'm very sorry if I hurt your feelings I don't know why Then at Crystal's house at Taco Tuesday she was there again And so I gave it to her and that's what you see but just just know this I didn't ask for this and I said I don't want to do this with you And I think that this energy is better placed with like I said Brandy Lisa Ted guided you think it's misguided Yeah of course The thing is that she came with a clear intention you know she wanted to squash that beef or you know get some things off her or something to get some things off her chest But it was really hard to watch because she couldn't get it out like she couldn't put her finger on what she was upset About And Erica kept saying can you please give me like something And she just kept saying watch the show The entire table was trying to help her Even Cynthia Bailey was like could you I swear to God Cynthia is so beautiful and elegant She was like is there an example you could give Erica like and here's the other one it's her first night the Twilight Zone You guys I'd be sitting there new arch brand new I met this woman right there and literally my first night like obviously I knew Kyle but my first time meeting all these ladies and I'm like come meet my nice friends Yes come meet her nice friends and these ladies are attacking each other across the table I'm like I fully entered the Twilight Zone Thanks Kyle Welcome A bizarre situation Yeah Um Well obviously we'll see how this unfolds as the season progresses Kyle I wanna circle back around to you You said this season could be described as worse not better necessarily for you Um You've been here for 13 seasons at this point compared to the last 12 Yes Give it up y'all Oh gee you status is right here compared to the last 12 seasons How much more difficult was this one And why specifically obviously you're you're being very vulnerable which has been very brave and impressive But is it so much that or is it that you had to make a conscious decision to share it you know what it was is that you know it was sort of new for me what what we were going through and we were starting the show and you know even today we we still live under the same roof Um and I just didn't know how to manage that And I also am somebody who can't pretend I don't have a very good poker face So on a lot of those scenes with my with my husband you could see that I'm clearly not that thrilled or happy or upset about something but I'm not you know I wasn't there to throw anybody under the bus or you know stir up problems I just was just trying to get through and you know I didn't want to fight with him and it was difficult but the producers are like something different is here Kyle you know we haven't seen this in 13 years and so that was difficult And um you know I I wanted I told the girls in the beginning that you know we were having a hard time Um And it was just like I was just figuring out my uh just trying to figure it out myself And I'd also come off of having a very difficult you know the reunion with my sister Cathy you know the aftermath of all that was very painful for me That was a loss and then I lost my best friend to suicide Uh a year and a half ago Um So it was a lot of stuff for me going on and I was just trying to keep it together and you have done an unbelievable job at that by the way stronger than you deserve to have to be Thank you very much Thank you You know you and Moe have been such a beloved couple of the Bravo verse for so many years now Um Just to check in so much as you're comfortable sharing How do you all stand right now How how is the energy Well you know we love each other very much and um we you know we are family no matter what happens and we have a very strong family unit Um My three girls still live at home Only Farah has her own place So um it's still like you know who's gonna be home for dinner tonight on the family chat and you know he's been busy he was busy doing dancing with the stars and um so he wasn't around as much but you know we're just trying to figure it out We know that we love each other and um you do I go we do have a clip that we uh we're gonna show a little sneak peek Do you need a second Babe Are you take all the time I know That's right I better get that Kyle We are all on your side We are so in your corner What I just don't say that you know a lot of people think you know like what what are you doing Just pull together and fix everything

Obviously that's what I would want Um This is not my idea of my fairy tale clearly you know But um I'm sorry I just uh thank you Anyway I do appreciate thank you Anyway I do appreciate all your um your your support and all that So absolutely We have a sneak peek of an upcoming episode um that we're gonna air right now Can we roll that y'all So what you're saying is that my husband cheated on me Did you not say that Kyle can't get new jewelry and Kyle can't get fit Is that what we're saying Essentially I guess so but by the way making it even worse uh I I said at the retreat this isn't that our best year of being married I I would be lying if I were to say that the last year it didn't affect you know me and our relationship at times we've had a hard time but that's my Yeah I mean I I have not had a great year and I shared this at the retreat So it feels like a low blow OK Is that not enough for you guys Sure Do you want more Do you want my husband to have cheated and bought me that band that he did not buy him Because he didn't he did not buy that for me I bought it myself I think Kyle does not want to address the elephant in the room Is there something going on in your marriage That's the question Not who bought the ring Does that matter Kyle How do you feel as your friends Do you feel that the ladies have a right to ask or dig more than you're comfortable sharing Or do you feel like they should be taking the hint to not poke the bear if it's something you're not ready to share you know if I was called on the phone and asked one on one I would have been much more open but being asked by the cameras Um and I felt like I was I I was on the defense and I felt you know instead of saying I'm here for you if you need me I don't know I just felt like I was was coming at me instead of saying if you need anything we're here I actually I did say you know just when you and I spoke and we were just one on one and I tried really hard to speak to you talk to you about you I'm talking about there My interaction actually we did have a conversation before that dinner One on one Yeah So I don't I I anyway I didn't think it was necessary to bring up on camera I really didn't it's something you know my my marriage and my family what we built is was one of my biggest accomplishments So it was very hard to acknowledge it Yes Absolutely Garel Your take I totally understand that And I feel for Kyle and I feel for what she's going through but we're on a reality show I mean Erica put everything out there I mean you've been doing it for 13 years That's part of our job is to ask things of each other You know and we've had conversations on the flight back from Vegas We talked and I would never share what we talked about But you know the reality is we are on a reality show So I don't wanna feel like we're the bad guys are asking questions It wasn't the questions it was the the way the questions were asked I didn't feel it was in a a compassionate manner less so with you than it was with Sutton to be honest But it it was like if you you're gonna ask me those things I understand I've shown a lot of my life in these 13 years I get that we're making a reality show but at least asking for some compassion That's all I asked for Ok On a much lighter note girl we saw that music video we saw Morgan Wade who saw Morgan Wade's video Kyle's been in the gym She's been working out You're looking good You've been on this incredible health and fitness journey Um I'm curious to know from the ladies actually what was the initial reaction to seeing Kyle in that video though I'm gonna whisper this to Christopher Um I actually thought it was maybe you're you're telling everybody that you're in a relationship You thought that was that I was telling everybody She said she thought you were telling everyone you were in a relationship I know that's not what it was That's what I thought it was that I asked my my family knew I was making the video before I made the video Ok ladies any other initial reactions to the video I haven't seen it I just I remember saying to Kyle I think you and I had dinner shortly after and I said because the um you know just before the video it it started to get a lot Kyle started to get a lot of heat like on social media and the headlines and then all of a sudden the video came but she had filmed the video beforehand So it just happened to be timing because I had said to her like oh Kyle do you think that was a good idea You know there's already so much chatter and she said you know Dere we filmed this ages ago before there was any you know the headlines So it just was bad timing Ok And and Kyle you mentioned obviously we saw some tumultuous times with you and your sister Kathy specifically this past season where do things stand right now How are you Two We're great Thank God You know we're really good Um we've been talking every day We went to actually Morgan's concert at the Greek theater to dinner after and she was we were just having so much fun My daughters and I we all went together and had the best time and she's been um both of them very very supportive So it's been great Ok Very good You said both of them I was gonna ask how you're doing with Kim also Both good It's rare to get everybody good at the same time So I'm just enjoying this moment Ok Very good Well enjoy Absolutely to read Yes Yes Yes Give it up for Kyle You're out of the hot seat Dori Let's pivot to to our journey that we see you on this season First of all the head to toe designer looks Season 13 How much fun did you have serving those up for us So much fun We always have fun Yeah with fashion and looks I mean that's my stomping ground and I enjoy it and and I have fun So I enjoy when other people enjoy it as well What's the longest you've ever spent in glam for a filming day Well it depends you know usually I mean you know glam is an hour and a half two hours You always put in a little extra time You know I've got two kids running around usually and there's always something that they need so I have to get up and do something but um it doesn't really take that long unless I'm doing something very elaborate Um you know usually I choose my outfit ahead of time and then I just figure out the hair and the makeup after So it's all you know a pretty easy process But you know there are times where I'm doing something very you know that takes longer and it could be three hours three hours lady anyone got her beat or here What's the longest y'all have been in the glam chair Um Two hours sounds about right It depends on how elaborate like she said depends on what you're doing but two hours seems more than enough Yeah Beverly Hills obviously known for its opulence its luxury I'm curious give us something we can take home What is an everyday beauty product that you all swear by my Maybelline lipstick lipstick Yes I love it It's like the stay I can't remember what it's called Like stay on forever It stays on forever Ok It looks good Whatever you are rocking right now I am coconut oil coconut oil OK Crystal says coconut oil Garel Moisturizer moisturizer We're talking facial or just head to toe but everywhere too Ok Um I'm gonna go with uh my heavy moisturizer as well and my l'oreal voluminous mascara that's not an endorsement I that's all it uses Erica I like a lot of oil oil to take off makeup oil to moisturize skin and Aquaphor Aquaphor Ok I use it on my babies It's good for your lips It's good for your cuticles your heels Anything that you can just drive I heard Beyonce loves Aquaphor too I'm obsessed Yeah In it for years Um it's not a shameless plug Genuinely My Beverly Beach Bronzer Um I do I love it She really does it really You do Ok And Anne Marie um I actually had really really bad skin growing up Um I had like great for cystic acne so I had to take Accutane twice So I'm actually really into like just taking care of my skin My three things sweating I work out every day two water and then Vintner's daughter serum Ok All right There we go Give us a few little gems Thank you for that Thank you all Um Now do we see in the premiere You talk a little bit about worrying Uh Are we gonna make it PK and myself How is he doing now with supporting you in the ways that you said you need to be supported work in progress Yes Um You know listen it was a challenging couple of years you know post home invasion and I was going through a lot of things emotionally personally and it took a toll you know on our marriage for sure And we had ups and downs and we rode those waves Um you know it it's something as I've spoken to people that are married or have been married for a long time You know everyone seems to say the same thing This is marriage you know and you have your ups and downs and p and I really didn't suffer any bad years in the 13 years we were together So I guess it's our time but we're working through it and um I think we're both hopeful Yeah being positive And we saw you in the season premiere Confront Erica about what she said at Bravo Con last year So have you two genuinely been able to move past that Erica Now why are you looking at me like that You're getting the side I I really am I give everybody a side I can hand it No You know like I said to um j on the first episode when I walked down to the end of the stage of Bravo Khan and said what I said I had no idea that they were going through something personal Had I known I wouldn't have said that I would have said something funny and clever but that's not what happened So I owed her an apology She accepted and I think that we've moved on but it's up to her to decide you know where she's feeling I mean that this is her marriage not my marriage No And you and I did you know you did you uh did the picnic air yet I don't even know Ok So Eric and I had that time together and I did accept her apology and I'm not one of those that accepts that apology says I'm over it and then isn't Um but I do want to say something and I know for you specifically because we were going through a hard time you know that's what but we actually weren't going through a hard time when that happened It was still it just felt regardless of learning afterwards that PK and I had some trouble It's still what hurt was that you said PK and I you know even at our greatest Yeah And I I knew that I had struck a nerve because you two always laughed off and you weren't laughing this off And so I knew I was like oh God I've really done something and I didn't of course obviously I didn't mean to but it just it one of these things that happen you're in the moment it's Bravo Con and then you have to pay for it later And I did and you know to the point about that apology we saw it as a viewer It felt genuine to me It felt real What was the reaction to all of the other LA from the other ladies when it came to Erica really owning that she wants to be less defensive and show up and be a better friend And she has been she has been I think we've seen a different side of Erica um this season And uh it was welcome Crystal You looked like you wanted to say I did Erica I she she is a good person and she really wanted to um show us a different side of her but I think she was going through so much that she couldn't And um yeah that's and do you think that was the case Erica Obviously Crystal saying you're a good person who was going through something Well here's the thing when you're not I've had a moment to come up for air and I wasn't defending myself I was not on the defense for two years you know So I was it was very heavy So when you have a moment of peace you can relax into yourself and actually enjoy a few things Uh And that's really what you saw was just a moment of peace and getting back to being normal and not constantly defending myself every way I possibly could Well I've only had a moment to be an amazing friend So for me I knew it was because she was going through a hard time So I was just happy to have her back this season and back to the Erica that I know and love So thank you I appreciate that things are better Like I said things are better and when things feel better you can be there for others and you're not constantly wondering the next time you're gonna you know have to defend yourself And that's a lot Yeah we're gonna open it up to audience Q and A in just a couple of minutes here So get those questions ready OK I wanna make sure I toss out a question a question to the other ladies first So Garc last time Andy asked about your love life you said as dry as his what is going on these days How is the love life Uh the love life I'm working on it You know I I what I try to do is prioritize what's really important to me And although I would love to have a partner and I go out on dates um I have a small window with my boys and it's really important that and the emotions we obviously understand You started to open up about that journey One it is so clear You are an incredible mother who is doing the best you can How has it been sharing such a vulnerable aspect of your life this year No that was hard Um That was hard obviously And uh but at the end of the day Jackson and I are in a better place But it was amazing because I remember growing up I wouldn't have been able to say anything any feelings to my parents We weren't brought up like that And so I really wanted to change the narrative and the dynamic of my family and sort of break that cycle of not being able to say something respectfully to your parents And so I'm grateful that the boys got that and they speak their mind Yeah they do It was such an emotionally intelligent conversation It was a beautiful exchange Jax is exceptional with his words and his intellect He is They both are y'all ready for some questions for the housewives OK We're running out of time so we're gonna we're gonna start to throw it out to the audience here So I really want to know how much you pay for that horse I'm not gonna tell you not gonna find out Ok I don't like to talk about that kind of stuff OK Fair is tacky We can't do it y'all We're never gonna know OK Who has a question for one of the housewives I can't we we're over there over here OK I'm just gonna say speak and hope that I think it's both sides Oh there we are Ok Off to the left here in the green Hi Yes go ahead Hi My name is Vanessa from Hollywood Florida Thank you guys all for everything that you're doing Especially sharing your vulnerability for our entertainment Thank you to Garel for really being relatable with the mom guilt I mean I can't I we can't imagine how hard that is and we totally get that So thank you Vanessa That's really amazing Silly kind of question I guess you're all very successful women in your own right And really living your own lives Do you think at this point Housewives is a misnomer or maybe you're redefining it Crystal Um I think something that what's really interesting about the show is that um is that uh we there's so much about us that not a lot of people know and that the show is like an onion and it shows different layers I actually am a businesswoman I own the second largest coconut water company in the world the second largest coconut water company in the world And people don't know that But what I love about the show it's really it's about our friendship and being moms and wives and girlfriends and all you know and that's what I think the misnomer is that sometimes we don't get to show all of who we are It shows a part of who we are It's one lane of it But you know this uh it's so amazing to the audience to get to see and and um these women all work so hard They all are incredible business women and sometimes it doesn't get to show all the sides of us and I think we deserve more of them Ok You're multifaceted Absolutely Anyone else want to add to that Anne Marie Yeah I'll add to that Um You know what I think that I feel like we are uh redefining the name housewives Like we're all modern women We all do a lot of things Like I came on the show It was actually my husband I don't even know where he is But hi honey Um he was the one like when Kyle text me um he was the one who was like honey Yes go do this This Marcellus was the one go do it Yes Marcellus So Zuri knows but my husband he played football for um 10 years and broadcasting Um EPN Fox for a very long time And so I was very happy to be like you know mom and like working woman and everything and just very private like my Instagram was private a year ago You guys very private person just supporting my husband And so when Kyle messaged me and he's like ho go do this this is something for you This will be an amazing opportunity And he's been telling me for years He's like do a blog do something He's like you're a very um multidimensional person You should do something with that You know I'm a mom I have four kids Um married nurse anesthetist a former college athlete very much into health and fitness And I'm like great This is a platform to show people what we do and ultimately like inspire people right Like I grew up on a small farm town in Canada like go make your stuff happen Amen Yes Yes Has the experience been what you expected as the newcomer I've had a blast Everybody like eye rolls at me They're like oh you're so cute The newbie is having fun but like eye rolling it yesterday you guys can see it on the car Season one answer It was so much fun I did So I have fun in everything I do Like if it's not fun I'm not doing it So I had a blast Like I had a really good time meeting all these ladies building these friendships and relationships Like it it was a fun season and you guys are gonna wait to the reunion reunion Ok We've got time for another audience question Let's go over here to my right now Hi I'm Alexander Diane Rogers from San Francisco And my question is for Kyle why do you keep thrusting Teddy upon these women when they clearly don't like her girl You're trying you're trying to make fetch happen And I just want to know why I know I'm not trying to make teddy happen She's very much happening in our lives and the teddy that we know is not like the teddy that you see on television And I don't feel the need to justify why someone is a good friend to me who's been there for me and supported me and I'm not trying to make her happen for you sir No disrespect but she's very much happening for me and of our friends who love her and and as that She said what she said OK I see What do we ladies What are these expressions I had a fan Not a fan I am a real clear right now There is not a bottle of vodka in my car Let's just make it real clear And I don't appreciate that being said and I don't appreciate my friend not saying Teddy Come on You know that's not true I don't wasn't nice and it's not true I like Teddy She's a friend of mine And um when Denise you know I said all this stuff to us I had to actually call Teddy and ask her tell me again why we're upset with her So there you go I like Teddy too I'm like I knew Teddy Um actually even before I knew Kyle like our boys played football against each other So Teddy's Teddy's good people Ok Next question Let's go over here to our left again Oh I love this outfit Hello Oh my God Thank you My name is Megan and I'm from Brooklyn New York And my question is for Garel A K A Fancy Garel You will always be known as Fancy and all the iconic characters you played on film and television and our community No no knows you So I want to know when you came on this platform did you feel like you had to reintroduce yourself or prove to the audience that you're already that bitch Thank you for that Um in a way I did but you know not everybody knows me Do you know what I mean And I don't know if these ladies they may have known me but I don't think they knew me And so um yeah I think I had to do that but I think

I've been able to do that with what I do on the show and what I do off the show Keep doing that Thank you so much All right Squeeze in a couple more high over there to the right What's your question Hi you all Yes She's having a good time She's unstoppable honestly Um I'm Larisa I came all the way from Germany Shout out to Germany Thank you Thank you Um So honest Our question is for all three of you or Well all of you from all three of us Um So in the Vanderpump rules panel on Friday LVP gave a hard no to coming back to Real Housewives of Beverly Hills Would any of you like to see Lisa come back show up So you said you've got your hand up Yes I mean I think she's great television She's obviously an amazing business person but I think there's probably some unfinished business and I thought she was really great on the show but it was before my time So I was a viewer and not a part of it but I love Lisa Vanderpump ladies Anything else to add Crystal says same OK All right I think we have time for one more question Let's go over here to the left Make it a good one What do you have Hi ladies I'm Michelle from Chicago Uh You're my favorite cast I love you Inspirational Aspirational so much So that we went to Magic Mike this weekend had a bit of a time It was wild loved it Um My question is for the beautiful Erica Jane yesterday we saw on a panel that Candace had selected you as the Bravo lab She would most like to collab with Are there any announcements Is there a release date Oh I did I I heard of that I think she has a lot of talent and I think she's doing great things I'm very proud of her and I think that um she's being very smart about how she's you know presenting her her art and I think it's wonderful Yeah And speaking of the art you've got the residency in Vegas Yeah I have the residency at Mandalay Bay How's that going It's great We have four more shows in December So if you're out anybody in December come check me out It's wonderful It's a great time It's a lot of fun Came to support It was a good time Yeah Incredible Well I wish we had more time but that is all the time we have Let's hear it one more time for our Real Housewives of Beverly Hills
