know I can trust y'all y'all eyes And I feel like it's very important because I feel like none of us are unstable and we honestly always keep it real with each other It's not like a meme It's not like a Yeah a little too real No you but honestly it's good though because we honestly hold each other accountable So it's like if someone's in the wrong then we can say oh trend that wasn't right or oh live that wasn't right And we don't have to fall out about it We can just talk about it People might take it as like oh no you're bashing me No I'm trying to help you But I think that like we're just we're just very self aware like you know what I mean So what are some non negotiables Just like in past friendships You were like I would never go through that again Like if you cheating oh if you're a cheater ok Honestly I'm not dealing with that That's loyalty How are you going to cheat on someone that you like Ok you not in a relationship whatever Do have your fun But once you're in a relationship and you egging me on to cheat Zero out of 10 we're not doing that Non negotiable non negotiables in friendships or relationships friendships or relationships I feel like it kind of plays hand in hand wise with your partner You got to me and honestly like if we fall out for example and like oh say I follow up with you guys and then you guys are talking and being weird behind our back and like you know something like that is like ok that's how you're moving But like like OK got you got you for me Definitely They need to be empathetic Like they need to like actually care about like my emotions and not just doing something out of spite without even thinking about me you know what I mean Or even something that I'm interested in or like um something I'm interested in or like the passion I have they need to like they can't bash it Like I don't like when people do that like when they're like oh you're weird for doing that like you know you never you never experience that I feel like I have I just can't think off the top of my head Yeah that's weird to me That's your friend You know what I mean You should support them regardless you know what I mean Not with whatever they do But you know what I mean Why are you bashing me for that color That's what I'm saying Why are you bashing me for what shoes I'm wearing to me That's weird That's weird I remember old boy was like just to the homegirl He was like oh yeah See that's kind of weird I mean but then that's his type but at the same time it's like yeah but that's why he's homegirl I was just about to say he's homegirl for real So let's keep that in mind So I think it's easier to be friends with boys or girls That's a good question because like low key I kind of used to have more guy friends than girlfriends But honestly now I have more girlfriends than guy friends and I'm still cool with my guy friends but I honestly don't hang out with them how I do with my girlfriends and it's just a different type of relationship And yes I honestly feel like it can be hard to be friends with girls sometimes because it can get messy and it can get weird But honestly like recently I've had really good experiences with girls and I honestly just feel like it's just whoever you come across you know I feel like I'm kind of at that age where it's like I can meet you for like 30 minutes and I'll know I will say too actually back home I had a good boys and girls ever since coming out here I've noticed it it's different the guys out here are very different to where it's like they're actually very messy but they're very very messy female And it's like it's like they'll make up a whole scenario about you You'll think that y'all are friends but in their head they're trying to get something out of you You know what I'm saying I can't say that for every guy but it's just like 75% of the guys And honestly that's why I'm really cautious when it comes to my guy friends just because it's like you never know what guys like they can always try to be your friends for another motive Like yeah so it's like when it's a guy I'm just like super cautious like we could be cool but like I got to see what your intentions are because if I'm not on that with you then it's just like I don't even want to be friends with you I feel like also it's different like let's say if you meet the guy like when you're like in middle school or something and then you all grow into like a friendship versus like now we're just meeting the guys and so like in their heads they're automatically going to be like is in like a party setting Exactly Because all the guys that I'm really close with and I know like you know what I mean I know they got my back I've known them since like middle school or like since we were like kids now that I think about it What about you Lydia What was the question Uh Is it easier for you to be friends with boys or girls You know I always always had guy friends Um but like Rachel was saying like over recent months years like I've just you know honestly I don't even know I can't even answer that I usually have guy friends but now I just you know something I noticed too with all of my girl friendships that have ended it's always been because a guy was like somewhere in there stirring the pot or just the reason why we weren't friends anymore And so I think that it's kind of crazy to me because it's like guys are messy and honestly that's another thing about us We would never let a guy get between our friendship We will drop him so fast Like never is a guy going to be able to break our friendship No man is going to be manipulative enough or not try to manipulate us in any type of way But I think it happens so much and when they can't manipulate it then they get upset and mad that they can't manipulate us You think I'm a dummy But honestly like this question kind of reminds me of do you guys know that interview with Brent where he's like I'm Yeah Well he's saying I guess the question was what is something that you look for in a woman or whatever and he was like no when she walks in a room and the girls are attracted to her she can like and it's just like now that I'm becoming older I can realize when you meet a girl and your vibe is just good and you guys click all that weird stuff and you just know off bat honestly And that made me think of that question Do you feel like I'm about to say off energy Like you can meet someone first five second the guy and like he's kind of weird There's always just something on I don't know what it is and I feel like every time we meet somebody people are always like oh I love you guys vibe It's just like when you have good spirits and and you get around people and they also have a good spirit too It's just like OK I like you you're cool You know So yeah I feel it I really couldn't answer that question So how do y'all feel about this thing Like if I don't like her y'all don't like her Um Honestly I feel like yeah and I feel like that's really immature in a sense because it's just like yes this person might not be friends with or might not be cool with someone else But that doesn't mean that because they don't like them we have to be mean towards them or start weird especially when we've had like bullying Yeah When we had a prior like friendship it's like we didn't have a falling out So just because you guys aren't they didn't do nothing to me personally And I think it also depend on the situation too It's literally just like petty stuff or like we're just young you know what I mean So like if I'm not friends with someone or like like I wouldn't even say I got beef but I just don't really hang out with them anymore I wouldn't tell you all that And it's like you were saying about the situation I feel like let's say something like that were to happen I would honestly like analyze the situation No like any situation let's say you had a phone call with somebody Like what's the situation Like I would I'm going to analyze what's the situation if it's real deep Like I might keep my distance because like how can you do that to somebody You know you just cut someone off because like because like I told y because some stuff is just like ok that's a no I can't even be friends with you after that But it's like some stuff is like ok I'm going to keep in mind that you did that but I'm not going to let that affect our friendship with you And I'm just because I feel like too all of us are human and so we have all done dumb stuff and I feel like it's not really fair you know what I mean Like it's not really fair for you for like one area in your life to just everyone judge you off of that So um in a trio do y'all ever feel like we play like the narrative Like someone's like being left out No no no no I feel like sometimes we talk to one more than the other the other But honestly it's never like oh my gosh I live is talking a train where I feel left out because we all talk to each other We talk to each other in a group and then we all talk I talk to you both of you guys But I feel like it's also because we're securing ourselves too I feel like we're not really like the clingy type At least I'm not the type of friend where it's like I'm the type of friend where it's like I can not talk to you for a month and then I can just come back You want to text for a month you wouldn't text for a month I mean sometimes they just go ghost like sometimes I literally just don't be on my phone Sometimes I just don't want to Yeah I'll be fine It's just like not even no no nothing Are you doing that Yeah No but I'm the type where I can easily just come back and just you know Yeah Yeah I'm kind of the same way But honestly I'm surprised we've maintained consistent communication for this song because every literally every day every single day every single day it might not be like we texting all day but we're sending something every day We're in the group chat talking about something every single time something something you said every single day And honestly I've never really had a girl friendship where we've talked this consistent we talk this consistent but we talk every single day and it's never boring It's literally never boring And especially when one of us says like two days ago oh my God girl and we were all stuck and I was like no way he did that Both of them That's outrageous I woke up from my nap disturbed That was yeah that was I literally had to unfollow even though like a scenario like that even though it didn't happen to me he he already has one strike So the fact that the fact that you're going to do that even though it didn't affect me it makes me look at you because it's like you're that type of person that no no But honestly us talking every single day I feel like in the group chat is what makes us not feel left out because especially because me and I mean me and Trent currently live in L A so we can hang out more and since L is further sometimes it's hard for her to come out here or hang out with us But it's just like I know but it's like love is always there and even if and even if we know and even if we know Liv maybe can't come we're still going to be like hey Liv do you want to come or like you know just make the invite open So it's not like even though they know I can they still make that because you never know she might make the drive to come out here You never know Like if it's real important like you know like Halloween something like that birthday you make an effort But if it's like a game or something like y'all got it Ok Have one of us ever brought someone around and y'all just instantly did not like it and no no really I don't think so because ok I'm be honest I'm not even gonna lie I have to warm up to Jaden Ok Yeah Um it was just like right when she got out the car I was like yeah she's a very bold personality though No it wasn't that she didn't speak That's what it was She didn't speak she didn't speak That's so not like her but I don't think it was intentional I don't think it was that some people just have a bad a bad moment just because that day we had so much going on Yeah that's what I think too you know Like you was driving from L A or whatever and then we drove from R to Joshua Tree So it was just like we had a lot going on that day Yeah I think it was just like a like a because I already knew I knew you knew you Jan was the only one I didn't know So I was like ok like everyone was talking she was just standing there I was like ok some people though they just don't you know when they first knew that that's honestly me sometimes when I meet people and it's just not my environment or I'm not just like 100% comfortable Like I'm definitely not myself and it's like I'm quiet I think I kind of have to trust you because that's to me being vulnerable And honestly this is me in relationships too like me being comfortable and showing my true side that's me being vulnerable So it's like for me to show that side of you and let you really let you in on to how I really am and how I act and you know my personality my vibe like I got to know you Cool too I can't just let my vibe be around everybody So I feel like that's something I've learned too since being out here Like I can't let everyone get my vibe When I see my family people people will try to take that away from you especially if you're just like a happy person A lot of people don't like that It's just crazy but also not just happy but if you just smiling 25 8 like dang I want to know why you 25 8 girl Ok I'm not going to say I didn't like her It was just it was like a Starbucks talking about it The more chill you wait we got to talk about Joshua treat honestly for a little bit because like Joshua Tree we went over the summer and honestly it was like a little girl It was like ok y'all we're going to do a girls trip period and I explained it that same day and we picked Joshua tree and I had you and honestly you're paying her the last day But yeah it was yeah honestly we had a good time though because it was eight girls and you know sometimes with girls it's hard to all bad Not too much though because I've been in the land all my life I've been Monterey in the land but honestly we all vibed and we planning the next day honestly So who's planning it We do Catalina or something like that Ok Maybe I plan to do Cuba Puerto Rico Jamie Jamie said she could plan this one OK Next question Have you guys ever gotten with a guy And you realize you didn't pick the best one of the friend group Oh no because you know I'm I'm basically gay So I feel like I feel like no in the beginning and then after I really got to know the guy and then I got to do his friends That's what I was like Damn I should have picked honestly Honestly No because I feel like I've had a lot of experiences where I'm talking to a guy and then I meet his friends and I'm like ok yeah I got the right way because his my pics are usually good But there's always like there's always that one person where I'm like dang Yeah I wish I would have met your friend first But honestly it's like me personally it might have been like oh his friends are cool But I don't think I've ever had to feel like dang I got the wrong one It was just like not like that where I'm like I want to start flirting with a friend If you have a situation I'm like your friend is actually way cooler than you Like I just feel like if you fumble me da da da da you not doing what you're supposed to do It's only fair that you get to give me your friend Ok But there's so many people in this world the friend is like yeah and honestly knowing guys like they're not going to say that they're going to be like oh yeah it's cool I'm not tripping and they're going to be like sh close doors with his homies he yapping around So it's just like yeah No And honestly I just don't want to be known as that girl is like a homie hopper going from this because it's just like you said it's too many guys in the world type so many guys And also too like usually like with like guy friend groups or even like girlfriend groups usually like who they surround themselves with is usually like who they kind of are You know what I mean Not saying all birds of a feather feather flock together but usually they have like they have like some type of personality trait that's kind of the same Ok So what do you think our personality trait that we kind of resemble I guess I would say that's one thing I really like about our friend group because we're bougie but we're not like the bad bougie Like not going to we all know our worth type It's like we don't settle for less and we have a standard about us that we just not voting for the way Oh my God I can't Ok Um what's an unpopular opinion You guys have Unpopular opinion I don't know The unpopular opinion I have is that I don't like it when girls or guys any race when they overly wear the full grills where it's both of their teeth I don't know why I don't like that It just looks I don't know it just doesn't look like it just to me it just looks dirty and just what it does when they wear it every single time I see you I want to see some pearly white and I feel like that's also just because that's my type I like to see the Yeah why are you covering up your teeth What's he in there I just don't I don't like how let's say we have a kick back or like something real chill You iced down Amiri Balenciaga Cuba Lean boy sitting with two other people what you do and honestly my unp kind of piggybacks on that because it's like I know people that have to head to toe cover down or when they be leaving the tag to intentionally show are they just doing the most to show that They just it's just like that just gets insecure to me because it's just like why do you feel like you need to you know like with the purple brand I guess that's how people wear the Yeah some stuff I'm like OK but like why you why you got H and M dangling in the back like you just keeping the tag there don't do that Rip it off So do y'all like guys that wear designer Yes I mean it's not something that I like it's not something that he has to have but like if he wears it it's like ok like for example if he wears a fit and it has designer or whatever Like if he's taking a picture and he's making sure you see it It's just like I don't need to be flashy with it I don't like I like designer classy You know my mom for example she likes real high end stuff but it's not shown everywhere This small little label she looks put together you look clean Yeah mom you look clean but together Annie love you Annie But yeah like you know I just think that looks nice You look presentable Can I take you on to my mama Yes or no And that outfit that I meet you in Can I take you to my mom Is she gonna be like OK like he's respectable Have you OK So have you ever speaking on that Have y'all ever talked to a guy and like you knew in your head you can never take him back to you Yes Absolutely Yes Like like I I talked to a guy where he said something and I immediately was like yeah you're never in my family like I would never mean you just bring it to my family and honestly if I have that we're gay I'm quick to just you know I'm good Um like why would I get that feeling I immediately text him or I tell them in person I'm like yeah it's just it's not gonna work Um but we can be friends because like my family is super important to me and I'm very big on family and it's like if I feel like I can't bring you around what if he was like on the phone with his mom He's like oh mom I hate you mom who sometimes you get in arguments like mom like ok but mom I hate you I have to hear like you don't understand you don't understand if I notice disrespect my mama hate you But personally I would want someone that has a good relationship with their parents or so But if I notice constant disrespect to your mom or just parents or your family you're just like you're done You're not there There's no because if that's how you talk to your parents raise our kids and if you come around my family like that if you going to get the boot baby and then you guys start talking to me like that too And then we we we got to go So what's one thing you all kind of took for granted being a kid Oh my God being a kid Because I mean actually I had a really good childhood and I enjoyed it But honestly and I never really wanted to be like oh I want to be so grown like it was like oh yeah I wonder what it's like to be an adult but I never was like oh I can't wait to be grown but savoring it Like being a kid being carefree worry free I would have savored it a little bit more honestly if I knew adulthood was like this and everything was going to be expensive I'm an adult like utility bills bills Being a girl going off of that I would say kind of just being gracious and having some type of gratitude because I didn't realize how much I didn't realize how much our parents really sacrificed You know what I mean Because it's expensive to live and even just like waking up that that's a blessing 24 Yes that you woke up this morning We're here right now talking That's honestly a blessing A lot of people don't have this opportunity are just of course time to how fast it went Even just being in college I've been in college for three years and it went by so big But I just think like we're going to be 30 don't say that 25 we're going to be 25 so quick That's literally in five years And I'm about to turn 21 on April 1st We're going to have kids Who do you guys have kids first Everybody says that because I'm good with babies and every time I get around a baby yeah I feel like I'm lucky the the mom of the group for sure It's not me No But honestly it's funny you say that because literally all the groups no matter who I'm in they're always like oh Rachel you're the mom of the group And I always get like oh you're very motherly and nurturing That's that's a good compliment So even in Joshua tree there was literally a mom there and you were still the mom I think they would still call you like the mom What do I give off Not mom and aunt auntie you're the you're the son His name is Preston He's 11 months I'm about to go pick him up from daycare He's a K nine So how do you all feel about situations now as I get old the less I like sorry No honestly as I get older the less I can tolerate them because it's just like what are we doing And I've honestly always been that kind of person where I want to know what we're on because honestly if you're not on nothing cool I'm just going to be on the same vibe So you know I'm just going to treat you the same way But it's like if you have those intentions with me like I just feel like we're grown up to where you can show them make them known acts like it And it's like if you want me to give you that kind of energy that I'm going to expect that you give that same energy of like oh I want to pursue you Where's the date where we you know why are we sitting up in the crib all day And you want me to be your girlfriend You want to act like you're a girlfriend But all we do is sit up in the crib like never Is it going to give that So I just feel like as I get older situations are just less tolerable like let's get to it let's get to the nitty gritty What are we going want You know I don't know because uh I never really believed in that until I was in one And I'm like you know what I'm chilling and honestly it depends on my vibe because sometimes I'm just like I'm really chilling like I'm not even looking for nothing for real So if I'm on that vibe then it's like OK I don't care because it's like I don't want nothing from you like for real myself So it's like we can just chill we can vibe I just want to cuddle Do you want some mo I got a big pillow so they can't rub your back and you know it one of the same because I'm also real late to the situationships Y'all know I didn't do that I feel like I just had one back situation and I just never but honestly like situations when they're draining Hello Sorry Rachel No I was just saying like do you know what we're talking about No it was it was just worse because he's also kind of weird So it's like just randomly doing push ups She was like what are you doing here Show you that video So Michael Jackson was playing in the background at like two o'clock in the morning What's wrong with you What is wrong with you What God he's so corny No but I was just saying like that's another thing about it Like we should be on the same wavelength all the time We can say oh dude oh girl and know exactly We we already we already know gay home girl Oh my God Mm mm mm mm But I was just saying about the situations that like what you were talking about when it become draining then it's like all right bro I'm done You got it because it's like we're not even in a relationship So why am I going through this once it becomes draining What did you feel like No what gets me is like y'all have have you all ever established a situation like OK you know we're just we're just going to see where it goes but really it's not going to go anywhere for real Have you all ever done that I learned that when I do that though They always get mad when I'm on my own timing Like because they want to they want to say they want to say when you  you that but I could do it better than you and and that's only when he established that if we locked in I just think about it if we locked in you don't got to worry about me on your own Yeah but the thing is if we talk and you act like oh yeah I'm going to do me I'm not really you're not a priority ok I'm going to return that same energy So don't don't be mad at me Don't be mad at me like not saying that we just like out there but you know I don't you know what I mean But we gonna we gonna talk but that doesn't mean we going because I never am I going to do too much but just know I'm going to do me if you're going to do you It's really that simple simple simple So looking back what would you say was one of like the crazy experiences we've had but like it's actually funny I feel like we have a couple of these Honestly I got one for each of you One of no go first OK Mine is funny Remember remember Kendall's party Mine would definitely be Kim's party for that Basically there was this girl that was friends with the both of us and I don't even know if she's your friend for real She was just trying to get information Honestly I wouldn't even say she's I used to be calling everyone She was my friend We were close friends I'm not we were close friends Yeah I'd be calling everyone my friend But really she was just like whenever I would see you at a party I would just say hey I met her through Olivia or whatever So yeah Olivia's friends are a little but basically like the girl the girl just started a rumor about me saying that I was using this guy for money or whatever I got my own money But basically I was in the bathroom I was you know I was going through some stuff I had just started my cycle or whatever whatever whatever So I was really emotional And what did you say Some excuses anyways anyways But I was going through a lot of stuff like that was when I had cut all of the other friends off and then I started that job because I didn't want to be alone Like you don't remember that That's the only reason why I got that job I thought you just wanted some money You didn't want to ask your parents No I just literally had no one else to hang out with anyways that I would try to come and see her But besides that um basically she started this rumor about me saying that I was using this guy for money whatever whatever Because I guess the guy that she wanted like they dated in high they dated in high school you know and basically I heard her and Olivia arguing like they were yelling at each other because I'm like before this I had asked Olivia I was like oh do you think it's a good idea Like if I you know continue talking to him like I say I feel like like she said his associate she tells everybody her friend associate like you don't owe her nothing Like if it was me or somebody that was closer to her like I really known her for like two months Not even y'all never hung out didn't have your phone number None of that I said hi to her at a party So if it was me for example ok Yeah that would be bad on my end because that's your ex I know him We've been friends for who knows how long on her end Like no you don't know her you don't owe her anything So that's where I'm coming from like ok so you pursue whatever I'm yelling I'm screaming with the bitch in the back because she's just like wow Yeah Yeah So so she's screaming and I'm like in my head I'm thinking like oh my God like they're like they're not about to be friends because of me like it like like you know what I mean I oh my God all of this is because of me I should have just never came I should have just never talked to the guy emotional It was her it was her insecurities I'm trying to have her see from any side a logical side She wasn't being logical at all The reason why we weren't friends That's why I need someone that's empathetic Like she wasn't understanding my side your side only her side which I understand you know that was her ex you know she loved the man ok Like girl we know how she only love him because she saw that I was talking to him Honestly I think no she she was down bad for that boy before you before you I don't know I don't know how either I don't know how either But you know what I'm saying You know because like literally I was crying at the party I remember yeah I was crying at the party and I was just so over it But looking back like that's actually so funny to me Yeah because it was like I don't even think it was like a couple of days after that like after we started yelling like we had an actual conversation about it and like and he was still talking to her the whole time That's why she's acting like that But I was just like why would you lie and say she's she And she said like I don't know why I said I'm like that's not right I'm like the fact that she kept it going too that's that's what initially was like ok like but she knew it wasn't true and she just kept going with it and then we only had like what a month left and then we started school That's when I just like unfollowed them remove them It was just like this is a toxic friendship Um And then for Rachel it was definitely remember the pajama party I have a couple with you But remember the pajama party and the party was over and then that random guy came up to us and he was trying to have us come upstairs he was old he was supposed to be a model or whatever He was trying to make us come upstairs He had to come here and he had the power that that party It was just it was so many people that we came across that was just like bro what are you on right now What are you on Please leave me alone Yeah Wait what's another one Um The one remember when we went to the club remember I couldn't get into the club Fake Yes and no And honestly like for girls with fakes they really but they don't ever they really just be checking the date of birth that Dragonfly and they actually be releasing you there too And it was crazy because no one else was in there Do not be jumping It was crazy because no one was in there But remember we were standing we literally stood outside for like two hours No we literally walked down the street got Mexican food came back and it was just like we went on our own little adventure honestly honestly and the people that we were with Made the night better I would say that he he's cool I haven't talked to him since that night Honestly But do y'all have any

scenarios I'd probably just say the thing that happened at um Kendall's Yeah It honestly funny like nothing else has been real It's ok People get emotional I think I really because like honestly we've done so much together we've done so much So I'm like no the one thing about us we're going to do something where it's like we just be doing stuff we just be doing stuff The two men you explain to me she is in Riverside and from this I honestly was never ever ever in my life They were Nigerian anyway So I remember what you were talking about earlier They were Nigerian Yeah so long long ago Trent hit me up She was like oh I'm talking to this guy whatever whatever He has a cousin and they're going to be in L A and you know would you be down I'm just like ok cool Let's hang out like you know you know you want me I'm like so like what's wrong with y'all Just continue the story So I don't want to hear food not even involved no more Wait with the car So ok Ok cool So we get to their spot whatever and we get to the parking garage Mind you they were horrible at tell us where the parking garage is we find it and they thought we were stupid They were just yeah Anyway so he's like oh I'll just hop in your car so that I can show you where to go I'm like ok cool He hops in the front I'm playing music Mind you the music isn't even loud Why does he tap my thing and stop the music He hits my screen and he's like he's like no I'm not that cracking up like this is the sassiest man I've ever met Mind You mind you he does that Yeah Yeah he does that Yes Wait wait wait So we're just like so literally he does that and I look back and I'm like I look back at Trent because she's in the back seat Like no because remember when remember when he first got there he didn't say excuse me he said he said get out Yes Yes Yes My thing I was like all right bro I'm ready to go home because this app is never going to give long story short That was the last time we ever saw them And after that he kept on trying to see me Y'all got into an argument I can't even remember what the argument was about because he started the argument and I was like why are we arguing I met you 24 hours ago and y'all finished out the day I knew something was off with them because we were trying to watch flushed away and away Flushed away I think it was like I was like are any kids movie that we tried to put on It was just like I'm sorry it was like what is it Like a Dream Marks movie It's kind of like that I know what you're talking about Ok All right I need a refresher anyways That was my one and only and ever again and just never gave and honestly I don't know I'm just to the point where it's like I'm cool unless I'm getting a breakfast meal lunch meal and dinner meal And you feeling I can't say that and you're getting imprint in a treat Have y'all ever found yourself doing like life stuff Yes I mean I mean I I just feel like it just because I like to do it and I was in high school so I wasn't really girl we're not talking about that We were talking about like all these other little random I don't know but I got to put that in there just in case you like it But actually yes and we weren't together But honestly I don't regret it because when you say wifey stuff you mean like cooking what do you mean his laundry Oh no no no I've only I've only cooked for one man and we work together but I don't regret it because I actually mess with him but it's not bad to show love Yeah And honestly one of my love language is like feeding people cooking for people So it's a little wit wait what's that So one of your love language is probably receiving gifts I hate receiving gifts I hate it I used to like I don't know why something wrong with me I used to really really like quality time but I don't know I'd rather what I'm just waiting I don't I don't know Like I just don't wanna see them that much Mm I get what you mean Really really fuck with that person you know how you was fucking with But honestly I get what she's saying because Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah But not every day we didn't hear each other every day we had other stuff going on But because I get what she's saying because it's like especially if we're not in a relationship like we're just getting to know each other I don't want to see you every single day all day because I feel like I'm going to get tired of you because I want to miss you a little bit so that our hangouts are more and I'm like oh I mean to see him I'm excited You see how we react when she says homegirls homegirls Keep that in mind I miss Frog too Hello her buff Frog She just ate it the best of Yeah we go This is this is for kids Next question Did you all see that thing on tiktok with the Asian girls and they like they had the little sweatshirt debate I saw that video It's like basically like so one of the girls she was roommates with one of the other girls the girl that she's not friends with no more And basically she had the girl that she had to cut off So she had a boyfriend and basically she started talking to this girl and then they became boyfriend and girlfriend like while they were friends So then they became boyfriend and girlfriend or whatever And then um the friend she was like I guess like one night she was cold she kept his sweatshirt for like two weeks posting it all that stuff added him to the clothes but it gave him I mean he mounted her TV and like um she started giving him sandwiches and stuff like but they both mounted the TV And she only got it for the boyfriend That makes sense And then ok so that was the first girl's side of the story And then the friend responded because the first girl had ghosted the second girl Just wait just wait The first girl had ghosted the second girl because she just felt like that friend wanted her man But then the second girl comes and tells her side of the story and she was like um she just addressed every single bullet point and there's like three I think And so first about the close friends because I guess they were all hanging out together as a group And then she was just like oh I followed everybody after that night and added everyone to my close friends So that was her first point And then the jacket she was like oh I was cold and then she was just like I didn't give it back because um I'm just bad at getting jackets back Oh and then for the close friends she was just like because her friend was like oh she's posting like cries for help She's posting like cries for help stuff for attention And she was just like oh that's like literally always what I posted my close friends anyways last point about the TV She was just like oh yeah we all mounted the TV together and I was just like we're paying him back for it with the sandwich and I handed it apparently she handed it to the girl and not him But yeah that's what the second girl said And then the first girl was like oh well she woke up early from class or work or something to like intentionally give the sandwich to him So it was just like but honestly after listening to both sides I still side with the first girl just because it's like I see it from our friend group but I feel like none of us would I'm sorry y'all's boyfriends or whatever Y'all bring on They're all side characters Like I don't even really care to know their last name For real I'm not going to what I do want though if I ever bring my  or yeah I want them to be inclusive and that of course and it's cool to build a friendship over time and especially if we always hang out together But it just seem like the second girl was a little too friendly too soon And it was just like I don't know just because the whole thing that really was like oh I'm actually siding with the first girl was the hoodie because I understand you're bad at giving hoodies back but you're still wearing it and why you posted in my nigga's hoodie And it makes me think too like you know how some girls how do you all feel about your guy liking like other girls pictures or whatever I don't really care because my thing is I really won't understand until I'm back in a relationship You know what I mean At the same time But at the same time I know like when guys of course not guys that I know But if a random guy let's say from sc like my like my like my picture and I see he has a girlfriend on his page I'm like why are you you know what I'm saying You know what I'm saying It's one of those if we're not together that's like I'm not going to trip off it that much like we're not together But honestly I can't I mean but I'm saying like if it's like we're just talking but if it's like we're not together but I know that we we go together and we're locked in together or even like if we're together now at this point I do kind of have a different standard for you And I just feel like if you like that's your homegirl whatever I'm not I don't trip too much off social media just because I feel like I don't want that to be something that the comment What if that's like his home girl It depends what he comments He's like ok period or like fire emoji It's just like um like just a friend comment like I can't do that off the top of my head OK He was doing that before he got a relationship with me in school If you out there doing hard eyes hearts white hearts red hearts pink hearts get that girl's comment I'm going to stop it Yeah like just be smart Honestly it's it's not it's not like a equation or something It's literally two puss Two don't do dumb shit you wouldn't want me to do and I won't do dumb shit You wouldn't want you Sometimes they be playing into that like oh I didn't know which is like honestly they're kind of smart for them I'm not gonna they are they're dumb No to act dumb So them girls are like oh he just didn't know it would be different They knowing how it makes you feel though Like same thing with like getting roses You know every girl likes flowers You know what I'm saying Like the roses I'm sorry I didn't know baby Hear the roses Oh sorry Thank you That was so cutie Uh uh no that's why I'm gonna put liquid on your PS 50 What's the most toxic thing y'all have ever done Oh I got a story for that Oh You you pull up the practices so you pull up the practices You pull up the practices So me personally but I don't even think that's that bad Like girl at least I'm not going to her You're arguing with your significant other and you pull up to their practice to yell at them That wasn't my intention though My intention though was for us to work it out you know for us to get back together Be happy smiles and all that But she just wanted to hurry up and get her car because she didn't want to talk to me Girl you gonna talk to me if I gotta put my leg up in that dough So yeah like at least I'm not going to your house ok Your house is off limits but apparently the public said it like ok like girl OK like it didn't need to get escalated but it did I just feel like going to practice is not that bad Yes I drove from Arizona to see her but ok like drove from a Z to Cali to pull up to somebody that was my girlfriend for what a year two years drove from a Z to Cali to pull up somebody from Cali Well I wanted to come for that week you know bring my stuff back But you know I had extra stops on the way and she happened to be a stop child anyway Um I I don't think I've done anything toxic to be two years and I emailed her unblock me on email and text free Yeah I don't play wait she likes you an email Um No no no Yeah you can she blocked me on messages and off my ipad and my phone So I emailed her like unblock me and then I got text free Unblock me girl like and so after you did all that that's when we still got back together So who was really crazy both of y'all But I'm not saying I'm not but she is too Huh Huh That's what did she do She wanted it to stop 00 no no Well no no no because she can come back every single time But you know that's not the point I literally get back with you Olivia I I did that but that's not that bad Like I talked about that If if if if I seen some effort someone coming up to my practice maybe not making a scene like ok I didn't have to make a scene in front of a coach Like I'm not saying what I did was smart I would still pull up to a practice But I wait like if the door is closed ok But I don't think what I did was out of pocket Like I wish somebody would come up to my practice and really make the effort to try and get me back Don't come up to my house But I can we put the comma but toxic because OK we were toxic But I'm saying in the sense like OK like we get in an argument da da da I block it up come up to my practice OK You don't have a way to reach me come to my practice OK Come up to my dorm OK You really don't be banging on the door da da da da da But ok I'll come out and hear you out because I see that you made the effort to come try and work it out because you know things can be worked out all the time over text over behind the screen So I had I had to come down and come down from Arizona Yeah I'm getting emotional because this because this was important We was in a year two year relationship and she was trying to throw it away Like girl don't do all that just because I'm eight hours away Don't do that But yes if somebody were to do that to me period I'll hear you out and give you a gold star Hm Two stars 333 You wouldn't want a  to come up to your practice to like appreciate and show like babe like I don't like how we did this da da da da da He was just talking about how you like surprises and shit That's a nice that's a nice surprise Obviously not a disrespect me Yeah that was kind of scared me I'm not gonna lie That would scare me I I literally tell my coach like oh no I went in the parking lot I didn't go on the track I went in the park Ok That's my Yeah Oh yeah No I'm not going up on the track track I waited in the parking lot wait until she watch her car Her coach was talking too long So I was like excuse me come on I got to talk to my girl baby You're losing me But that was two years Like we were together for a year two years Like at that point you should have a comfort ability where you should know what things you can and can't do You know what I'm saying Like some people ok like maybe I can't go up to that practice because they really might react in a type of way that I wouldn't want to react she I knew could never go up to her house That's a no no maybe a practice for her to listen to me because over text she just liked to block block block Never like to communicate So for me for example I knew she had to see my face I knew she had to just constantly just yeah So did you think you were gonna get married to her Billy Sorry She thought I was I I was going to say no no no I did I had to promise ring and all But it's kind of cute It was yeah I don't think I've done anything Yeah I don't think I like that No you giving the people these messages that what you're doing is toxic I'm trying to let y'all know people that if you really have an effort make an effort to go and see that person if you really care if you really care do the extra mile Don't take a foot take the mile Ok Don't be like slashing no tires or nothing like that but like you know just like a simple just practice if you feel like you can go up to the house you know throw a rock at the window you know and serenade them Ok That's you But you know there's a little little yeah Effort I just hm That's just me That's just me personally Um what are you starting to like less and less as you get older people Why was I going to say that Lord how was I going to say that I just say too much people pleasing like why are you on my dick Like get off you're on tip like bro I don't even know you Why are you just doing all that Like chill You don't even know my name I could be a serial killer Why are you doing all that Like people are too shit shit That's all I gotta say shit Like like like drunk girls my girl why can't you drunk guys Oh drunk guys I wanna like I might be telling both of y'all why are you letting this boo boo the f come up because men are crazy Men are crazy and it's not I'm like I'm pretty petite like they should easily just OK well I'm there Yeah but still it's scary like you never know what someone has You know That's true I did see this thing on Instagram where she politely said no and they beat her up like they tried to bite her her eye out Wait what did you say Rachel You said people too people pleasing people pleasing people pleasing because I'm just as I get older I'm just focused on me for real I feel like everyone goes to that phase with the people please because I used to I used to be a people pleaser and it was just like I wasn't doing anything to actually make me happy You know what I mean I was kind of like putting other people before my happiness It was kind of selfless at the same time because sometimes you need to be yeah selfish selfish certain situations just because it's like it's nice to be selfless but you can't lose yourself in the process For me I would say just like beating around the bush I can't take people that beat around the bush Like you're not up front we're not going to work like say with your chest chest not the half chest not the other half the whole chest baby Ok I want to end the video with um like what's one thing that we all admire about each other I love your bubbly personality All right So I you know Rachel I admire that how you carry yourself honestly Like I think like very poised like I think that's a respectable trait and your bubbly personality is just like it's endearing People want to come up to you talk to you like whatever for me For Rachel I would say um probably like what we were talking about earlier like you're like motherly like naturally I wish I was kind of more like a little bit more like that But yeah that's one thing I really I really like I really like about you and then for Olivia I love your honesty She's very honest She's honest Of course Rachel's honest too but it's like a different type Olivia is literally just going right to the point You work for everybody too That's also a trip for both of yall Y'all take what I say with a grain of salt because I know that even though you're blunt you still come from the heart and you have good intentions I would say that Rachel Let's see Um One thing I admire about you is you always are yourself regardless of who you get around like you're always going to be yourself You're unapologetically you and I really like that about you because it's like you don't care who's around like you're not going to switch up You're like I'm me This is how I am take it or leave it like if you don't fuck with me Oh Well like you know so honestly I really like that about you trend um Honestly your bubbly personality is a good one and honestly just like how you make connections and you just talk to people and it's just like how can I put this Like I guess like you being outgoing I really admire that about you especially because I'm kind of like you're not close minded like you're always open to let's do this You're not afraid to try something That's kind of where I'm trying to go Yeah you're not afraid to try something and it's just like let's do it That's why I feel like we all get along too because there's there's something that we all admire about each other That I kind of like I want to get more I want to get more serious and I want to get more honest with me It's like I'm always kind of very serious and like together and it's like with you it's like you're not afraid to both of you let loose and let's try something let's do something Let's be spontaneous adventurous Like you know I just feel like we all kind of feed off of each other in a positive way and it sounds like we all have qualities that's different because each one of us is different We're not animals are the are the same but we all mix because it's just like what we see something we all see something that we admire about each other what one person doesn't have the other person has and it's like it kind of just flows so we all kind of just mesh together Well what did you say Wonder wonder I love Bill Oh cute All right But yeah Um that's the end of the episode I hope you guys enjoyed it I hope you guys like my friends Um I hope you guys like my friends Um see you guys next week We hope you like them Yes Um bye bye
