

TRINITY UNPLUGGED with TRINITY ROSSUM | EPISODE 1 | AVIAN & ALEXA

Hey y'all this is Trinity and this is the first episode of Trinity Unplugged Shout out Twin Bridge Sports and studio places for making this all happen And today for my first episode I have two special guests my sisters I'm gonna let them introduce themselves Ok Hi I'm Avian Rossum I am 22 years old and I go to the University of North Carolina Um I'm Alexa Rossum I'm 22 years old and I go to the University of Oregon So since you are my sisters how was it like growing up with me Um Trinity she is a fire sign and she acts like it She is very full of life and energy Um And I'm very I'm the oldest So I'm very much like a mom Like I'm very like I need to leave at this time I need to I don't know I'm like very like structured or we both are though We're both the oldest though So that makes sense and we're both Capricorn So no but I will say Trinity one time I don't know how we made you mad but you chased us around the kitchen with the knife But yeah No she's a little crazy There's never a dull moment Ever Ever Did you have that last night I was like you did Did you have fun So I know we're all on social media So like what's one big misconception you feel like people have of all of us let me think um or just individually like of you and me you I don't think people expect me to be like a nice person or just be normal I don't have as many followers as y'all but just in general it's crazy or like they expect me to be mean and like always have an issue and stuff Not like that every single time I talk to somebody they're like oh my God I didn't expect you to act like that I didn't think girl yes or even sound like that like you don't even talk the way I thought you were going to talk I'm like OK for me um I have 400 27,000 followers but I'm like very normal Like I'm very like I just go to class and go home like I don't go out like that I go home every night A lot of people think I'm like really stuck up though and probably like I talk to a lot of people which I do but like they assume that I make boys Yeah they that I mess with a lot of people and that's just not me at all I don't even get down like that at all So I feel like they might be like a little disappointed when they meet me but then they meet me and they're like oh my God she's actually so cool She's actually like a genuine person Genuine cool girl Let's be best friends and then they never leave Yeah Ever Yeah No for me it's for sure For me it's for sure People just think I'm ditsy They don't know I got a 4.0 GPA though Yeah But no for sure For me it's for sure being ditsy until they talk to me and then they're like hold up You use that word No for real What does that word mean Baby ditsy No But honestly honestly though I kind of use this my advantage I'm not gonna lie You should for sure Or it's like for me I use it to my advantage Like a little different though But like being the like people you know what I mean They don't think that she would do certain stuff So it's like or you won't catch on to certain things sorry I won't catch on to certain things that to my advantage in the sense that like if you if you're gonna treat me like I'm like something special then I'm gonna act like it like I'm always like that that's where my so it's just confidence But I mean like if you think I'm famous then baby I'm going to go to the online and you gonna get me and all my friends in like if that's how you're going to treat me then baby I'm gonna yes for sure So we all live in different States So how is it like like being so far away from the family Um ok Well I live in North Carolina and you know what I mean Yeah Ok But I go home a lot like I travel like every weekend if you have anybody else everybody at my school really does think I'm famous because every single weekend I'm in a different state or I'm in a different state just doing like stuff So I don't know I go home a lot My best friend has a baby so I want to see him all the time But as far as the west coast shout out shout out mi a mi you But um as far as like the west coast that's a six hour flight I ain't going lie That's why I don't be going home But it's not that bad As far as seeing my mom and dad and my little sister Talia Shout out to Talia for not being on the show We still love you girl love you bookie but couldn't make it because of school But she in high school Yeah but I will say I living in Oregon is different than living in California closer though Yes me and you specifically for sure Even last year when I was coming down here all the time Like yeah I think it was worth it It's different because like what are they saying You don't you don't realize what you have until like or like you miss things It's just because we all grew up like you know like when you're on top of each other you can't be around your roommate too much You can't do everything with the person you live with Hell no by myself I like having to not talk to anybody for 20 years That's my spot that I'm at right now is the best decision of my life I just like being to myself I live by myself I basically live by myself I got my own room my own bathroom I ain't got to worry about nothing What about you Oh my God Um I would say like it definitely just made us closer but in the sense of my mom and dad like going to Georgia you were there for the summer But I mean but I can't be there for too long I would say like I can go there but I can't be there for too long No I don't ever want to get back in the house No I'm not neither I can't

It's too late They messed up sending us to college far away and then COVID messed it up too because when we had to come back and we had and we all had to live back together It was like living out here The west coast and east coast is just so different appreciative of how they grew us up Me too Yeah for sure I appreciate it I need some kids out here yesterday when we were at the football game the US C versus UCL A there was some entitled people there They had some serious problem and how are they acting How did you grow up How they act They have pushing and shoving or sh I like your basic manners Like excuse me please Oh they don't do that out here I don't like that So it is honestly it just made me like be way more appreciative of how they in No but that's the southern hospitality That's why I need to go back to the south Stay out here I'm gonna have like I'm a like when I have kids I mean I still have that mentality of like the southern girl You better come back to the south and raise your kids I mean I don't it just depends like where I get a job and like ok I just want to be closer you know what I'm saying We're all older We all need to I might end up in like I don't know like Philly like New York Philly mommy said it's a great place I would move to New York I think I like I'm looking at jobs in New York right now Y'all could come visit me Atlanta for sure I love Atlanta No they're making Atlanta cop city We're not doing that She ran about it last night Ignore it Wait what when did you make a rant about it last night And I was like let's all just move back to Atlanta I was like no I mean you were no girl She said don't ask me the question why we were at the club Yes because she was asking me if I wanted to move back to Atlanta And at first I was like yeah but then I heard they were making ac having her like wait tell her why though like say the no because it's like oh it might be I'm not going to say that her after because I was like girl it's two o'clock in the morning This is what you're talking about You got to know education So OK so back to social media So what's the craziest thing that y'all have ever experienced Because I know y'all got stories I have some stories It is traumatizing I think I've learned men have a lot of fetishes and are nasty Almost Would you ever sell though I mean yeah I have but I don't anymore I love the candor though It's just weird It's so weird and that they want you to do certain things for money and I'm not driven by money So they get real mad when I'm like no I'm not doing that Don't respond and change your number I need to get a new phone I need to get a new phone number too Rihanna answered the question though Um A lot of a lot of creepy stuff Abby has a lot of weird stories Don't want to talk about it Like you know you wanna know for real men are so disgusting not all of them but for me personally in my Instagram men have made fake photos of me A I mean I just got hacked I just got hacked text me and be like why does someone have us on their on Twitter It's all on Twitter It's the weirdest thing I've ever like and they're making money off of it which makes it worse I don't know if y'all saw this though Someone recently like took a screenshot of my one of my pictures and they were like oh like she's a little too skinny for me I saw that like what like a million it got like a million What are you talking about it Like a million likes or something It was like I need to pick out the big hello Is that not crazy though No it is It's like it's like I mean everyone getting on him but it's just like whoa you know I love social media in the sense that like it gives me financial freedom and like I really don't have to worry about anything but it's also in the sense like I had to like I had to change a lot of like my mindset like in like in it honestly like in the last year because I used to get like really really bad anxiety Like when I would go out and stuff my social anxiety would be on 10 and I would be like like I literally would be like hyperventilating or like actually you know the the person that you told me came up to you and was like oh are you trend's famous sister like that Why would you ever say that That's really weird You know the weirdest thing that's ever happened to me though Um Probably I hung out with this guy and he was a celebrity and I thought that me hanging out with him he wouldn't do anything weird And he wrote a whole song about it on something that just never happened He basically insinuated that me and my friend did things with him and that never happened and then he released the song and now everybody at my school thinks that that happened So that's another really weird thing that's happened to me that a lot of people probably can't relate to People are just weird Like it's just like at the end of the day like social media gets to their heads and they're like this amount of followers My thing is like you're a celebrity Why are you chasing and then me and him were cool that's the worst part Me and him had a good relationship like I knew him outside of like his music and his So why would you do me like that You don't deserve that That's why I think social media just isn't for me personally I'm going to delete my social media after this I don't want fame I don't want any of that I just yeah I just don't have time for it To be honest I like to be by myself I just took a step back Like I just post when I have to post the ID Like nothing really gets to me anymore because like if you've seen if I have went on social media and seen photos of myself that I never took and they're sexual and like just inappropriate What else could really hurt me Like you guys are already doing like the worst thing

That's how I feel after getting hacked Like like getting hats was like the worst experience I've ever had And then people actually believed that I would sell explicit photos on my having an only fans Like if you actually know me you know I'm not even like that So that hurt my feelings more than getting hacked and then just my privacy being exposed Like I just like what am I supposed to do now Because my Snapchat got hacked I remember the only thing is my Snapchat got hacked I was at a soccer game and someone just kept calling me and I was like what is this And then they were trying to get into my Snapchat You know I haven't posted on Snapchat in like two years So then randomly people were like hitting me up like oh my God why did you post it on your Snapchat It was a picture It was like a video of like my ex It was an inappropriate video Yeah it was like an explicit video of of my ex and then um so I got so I had to delete my snapshot all that stuff and they just kept posting it and then they texted me after talking about myself I like oh you like the show huh Or something crazy Like just disgusting and perverted That's crazy And then and then um my ex thought that it was me but he did you hear about this girl I thought I texted you and I was like check my Snapchat like make sure like they didn't post anything but this was late at night two weeks ago into your Snapchat I don't know That's what I'm trying to I don't know I don't know I don't like that trying to hack into my Snapchat but it's like the wrong Snapchat I keep getting notified about it I'm just like uh yeah well how did they get the video just on your Snapchat Because when I was younger I never saved anything to my camera just to my memories in my Snapchat memories So yeah And then I had to go to the police and everything Like I was just freaked out and it turned out to be like an old man or something like that It was no Oh I thought you did Oh my God So Olivia and Rachel or Olivia Olivia and Rachel figured out who it was and this random person in New York or something like that But when I went to the police they were like he they probably they probably hacked their thing and their information to hide you So you really don't know Like there it definitely probably yeah probably So you should look for all of my social media The two the two step I had to get that from my Instagram You just didn't have it because they have that And like when I tried to do it they were like oh sorry it's disabled or something That's crazy You don't care that much I don't really use Snapchat either I feel like I'm just too old Like I feel like people don't realize like we're actually like human beings people like especially like when you get to a certain status or a certain like or how people perceive you really Because like in my head people tell me oh you're famous No no no I'm not I'm not But I feel like people like treat you different or think like you're less human or you have less emotions They definitely do People just think that like what they're thinking in their head about you So if someone's like oh you're stuck up you're this you're that they think that you're thinking of that But they're really just projecting though Like it's not you I always say it's been times when I've addressed people who've done that things to me like oh my God abby Like I'm so sorry I didn't know you were a real per like basically like I didn't know like you actually cared like I didn't know you had feelings but as soon as they find out the stuff that they're doing then they oh my God Abby I would never do that Can you please forgive me No you're weird That's that buttons for and I'm quick to remove some weird stuff My intuition don't lie So I not talk let's talk about what people really want to know So what are y'all what are y'all I what are y'all's red flags What do y'all look for in guys What You know what I've learned I want somebody who's soft like I want or soft to me Like somebody who treats me soft like my ex we broke up Yeah But one thing about him is he really did cater to me like he like really made sure I was ok like all the time Like I could call him at three o'clock If I was having a bad day he would come and cook and clean like he would like really do his big one Like you just want to be in your soft girl era Yeah I just I always knew everything was taken care of like I could just follow him around I'll be fine Like you just want to you don't even want to bring your brain You just want to like all the time Well for me personally I want a godly man who's kind but I have to emphasize this because there's a lot of men out there who say that they're Godly and you know they're not they don't I peep onto it really quick and they just want to use me and stuff like that It's OK But yeah I want that I want somebody who's kind who's funny and who to like have fun because like in my last relationship I really didn't have fun Like I would have to be I don't want to have to beg somebody to go on a walk with me or like anything I shouldn't have to do that There's not a lot of things that make me happy I mean that make me not happy So like the simple things really matter to me And I think somebody who cherishes that would have my heart to be honest for me Of course all of that But but what someone that has some type of drive some type of power oh my God talking to a man who don't got his own his own stuff going on He's surprised how many people they want to bite off of you or ride on your coat tail don't like they have no idea what which is fine because we're so young But have an idea You should have your passion or hobby or something or like yes or like even like even if you want to go pro which is perfect that's perfectly fine Have a backup plan I like I like the that has a backup plan because that does not last for a long time It never lasts a public Let's be realistic I I have something to say One thing I don't like is when guys just assume like oh I'm an athlete Oh I have status You're going to want me like don't make that assumption babe don't make that assumption I do not care that you could catch a ball throw a ball a ball whatever I don't really care I don't really care Come on Can you make me laugh Do you have substance You know because for me too like I I'm very independent to the point where I don't even need to be talking to no one You know what I'm saying I know I'd be calling you like girl and yeah she she'll be calling me asking me for advice and stuff like that with text and both of them with the guys Like you be asleep because I come like I'm very genuine This is the thing about me I listen to a person and I believe what they say when I really shouldn't believe everything that they say because because I'm a very honest person So I expect them to be just as honest as me from the jump and they're not they like to lie So I'd be running against Trinity because she need to be like oh he's lying girl I'm like oh he's lying because I feel like it's so different when you need someone else Yes And I'm like oh I have this foggy I'm kind of happy that Kobe's a boy I like Kobe too because he be keeping it a buck with me like he be keeping a buck with both of us Shout out to him Yeah And he keep his mouth shut too So shout out to Kobe But I am I OK I have a couple So one thing for sure is like when they like ok so like say they're like a Yeah like say they're like a professional athlete or something So they assume that I'm supposed to chase them that yes that doesn't even give the right vibes Like you as a man should want to pursue a woman you should want to be like what Exactly right Majority of the time they lack basic communication skills to begin with like they have no yes emotionally available That's all you have Like I feel bad almost like I'd be like let's talk about your childhood or something Let's talk about your parents or sibling I think about what got you here because this this cannot be the highlight of your life Like no I'm sorry That's that's it This is their peak That's why would you see your life like that You should be so much more That's what gets me like oh I want a genuine girl like I want a girl who really they don't they don't they don't because when I try to like they're quick to you can't compete with someone that ain't got morals either I don't want to say the word You can't compete with someone that ain't got morals I just don't got time for it I just really don't And that's and that's it I'm a lot more than what they could provide But then when they have a girl that wants more for them that actually cares about them I feel like they just get scared they get scared about it because there's not a lot of girls like that either Just like throwing their money around to where No no but you get what I get what you they're used to buying women used to love bombing and that's what I mean Not actually buying women I hope y'all aren't doing that And I it's like little things I'm just like why did he just do that If a man holds his fork like this if a man holds it in his butt If he holds his fork like this run he's emotionally unavailable So no shit Like what this this is bullshit Yes OK Y'all y'all need to pay attention to how people hold their No no I do But there was a whole video on tiktok about how boys hold their forks in girls and all the boys are holding their forks like this Yeah Yeah No no it's not No it's not That's a boy thing Not a man thing Hello Hello The word The thing for me is when a guy is more scared of something to me Like wait what do you tell if a guy is more scared let's say like a spider a bugs like bro why are you jumping on me Why are you OK I'll give you an example Like so I went to go see the movie Saul with this guy Why was he cleaned up like this the whole movie And y'all know I like movies like that Like I like Saul I like her you do whatever whatever But the night before he was like oh yeah I've been wanting to see it like so don't don't say he was scared like girl girl First of all he had on it's it's L A he got on three coats The reason it was a puffer jacket a puffer jacket So that was another because I was like why do you go on Three goes it's 80 degrees outside And then he was in the movies like girl when I tell you he was like this I would have walked out he whispered in my ears and I'm like oh you think I'm a punk or something I say yeah I do And then I started to laugh in the movie Girl Yes I was ready to go like it to be out in real life in real life I'd be ready to go Be like ok well it was nice to meet you Nice to be I gotta no it was to the point where it was like ride back home to ride back home I just like I just went to sleep Oh you're crazy You didn't have no First of all the movie theater was like 40 minutes away I don't like when dates are too far away because it's like I have no escape Like I really got to sit in the car when you go right right home No it's not gonna work for me It's like not like I that I'll get like in person but like disrespect or never people I talk to I would never talk to nobody I've ever talked to I have I have an ick when a man says he's he's nonchalant I do not don't ever admit to that You're no nonchalant I'm nonchalant I'll show you how it's done You're not doing it right Y'all check like when you go on a first date or something like that Do y'all check if he like tips Oh yeah that's important That is very important No no it's not giving broke it's giving You don't care about it I mean no not I tip I'd be looking to see if they tip If you don't you're broke you're broke and you don't you lack basic let's heavy on you lack basic you're empathy That's another thing I feel like that's just how we grew up We grew up tipping because like you know what I mean Like they don't have a girl I wouldn't even be friends with a girl who doesn't who doesn't tip I don't like that I tip when I get my nose done I tip when I when I go to the service is just terrible I'll still give him a little tip like a dollar and be like you should do better I'm so for all about that is true It I'm weak So do you have any red flags when a man says he's nonchalant Like I don't why would you admit that you're nonchalant to me You're just telling me you don't care You're not interested in me You just don't care I can make the most nonchalant boy in the world care about me And it's like they're nonchalant They equate that to just not caring about people when nonchalant nonchalant isn't about not caring about people It's just like you're neither here nor there Like if something happens you're not going to let it ruin your day But the nonchalant men are always the most angry people I've ever met So no they do They be having deep down like anger Yes they need to go to therapy That's another thing I think black men should start going to therapy That's another thing I feel like I tell them to go to I feel like you know girls like we'll go to therapy to talk to each other too But it's not the same though because they're not getting into anything surface level surface level And I've noticed that a lot of men need to go to therapy because I've been a lot of therapists for a lot of men and they'll use you for that Let them go because they'll use you for that You going to use me to be your therapist babe it's free You're a student Ale It's free No for me If my man's not obsessed with me then you shouldn't be my man because there's a lot of people that are be with somebody who wants to treat me how I deserve to be treated Would you want to see your guy every day live with somebody Basically I'll see them like twice three times a week No but I would not be mad if I had to stay with my booth for a whole week I would not be I'm talking about like a year type Like if you going with somebody and it's not like it's not like you're all up on them You have to spend every single hour with them But when y'all are chilling at home he could be right here I could be right there We just enjoy each other's time It could be silent I'm chilling and I'm at practice I'm tired I'm tired So you ok So you said y'all both tired So like would you date someone that's not an athlete No Yes A businessman I love that answer There are athletes who are businessmen too So you said you wouldn't and why not I don't know I feel like I don't know I don't know I definitely would I would I want it You could be athletic and not be an athlete real That is your morals in my opinion it also equates So I would say 20 with like your stuff together To what Because I met somebody 24 old men in that for me Anybody over a certain age creeps me out for me to 26 Like for me though Ok And I'm three years older than you So 2023 to 29 I'm 20 And I'm saying I can I can't date no 19 or 18 No I can't either But I'm saying like even me being in grad school I'm around older people already So it's just like ok you're 27 you're 28 It's really not that bad And I'm about to go into the workforce I'm about to be working with 45 year olds So if I go on a date with somebody who's 32 I don't think mommy would get mad about it And that's a little too close You thinking about what mommy would think Oh I always think about what mommy would think about any of the people I would bring I always think about that too Like if I like what would mom five year olds I think that would be ok Like I want to be mad about it I'll be like no because remember when when I brought around my my one friend and he was like 25 and you know like ok but he's cool though But of course we're going to give him crap That's dad He met Daddy he met all of us at once That was the mistake that you made Ok But that's because he picked me and avia from from the I understand that it was kind of unprovoked I mean it was it was it just happened naturally But yeah I would say 23 to 2828 You said 28 and you're 28 No other number I'd be like no I'm sorry I mean I also find it a little bit weird if you're in your thirties or if you're 28 to somebody who's 22 that's almost a red flag To me That is a red flag I was about to say that to me that is a red flag because it's like why does no one your age Why why don't you Ok Ok So let me let me do let me let me do a realistic age I'll say I'm about to be 23 I'll go up to 26 That's three years No I like I know women who are like 30 they talk to people who are like 19 No that's disgusting That is illegal You need to be in jail If a guy did that everybody would be like that and it's disgusting Yeah The age gap is just weird Like what do we have to talk about What do we have to talk about That's what I'm saying like babe you are what do we have to talk about Even when I hang out with the freshman at UCLA I look at them I'm like you're a kid You're a kid You're a baby You know of course you're going to be friends because you're cool But you're a baby a kid I I think it's a little weird That's like Talia's age right I put my little sister little sister so I I changed my age group So would you date a guy with kids Would you date a guy with kids So I don't have to push him out Oh my God I would definitely date a guy with kids But I want my own kids too I just want to be married first I'm going to be married I get married I wouldn't but I don't know if she wanted it and but also that's just because I'm like 29 I just wouldn't date a guy with kids right now No But like when I get to like 28 like the age when everyone starts having kids then I'm gonna I'm bound to pop maybe date someone with kids when I'm like 28 Like everyone's gonna have kids at that point You're gonna still be dating at 28 I'm married by that time I'm gonna be no like I don't want to because I know like with my job I'm gonna be I'm gonna be traveling so much I'm not gonna have time just settle down and just you know what's your job I want to be a sports broadcaster But they travel like every week I ask me why I didn't do sports or they said I should be a recruiter for sports So I'll probably be really good at that You would Yeah But um so I won't have time to really like just settle down and just I can't wait to be a mom Yeah No I don't want to have kids until I'm like 30 Ok That will be like the fuck auntie Yes she will Me and we are going to be 15 and chilling at my spot We were going to love your spot You have one in Miami one in New York What's that What's that big pit that had I might have one of those in my spot the ball pits for sure That was cute and it was fun for me I know I'm gonna definitely have that for sure So ok this is going to be a little deep So what's one thing you would tell your younger self I don't know I love myself um like little me was so cute like she was so cute I like her daughter So that's what she would tell her Yeah like I mean I don't know I would say like don't change but like she's going to have to change like there's no way she can be like that in the Real World That is true I I don't know Trent that everything is going to work out Everything's ok with time everything passes the worst everything happens on that I would I would tell her because this is what I have had to learn People come and go in seasons and they're not supposed to be in your life forever because I don't let a lot of people in So the people I do let in I'd be wanting to hold them on forever And it's like no God don't want you to have that since I've been here I've learned to kind of detach really It takes me a long time to do That's why I be calling you like like it's not that I'm like emotionless but it's like if you do me wrong you knew how this would make me feel like you didn't see me once in this in what you were doing So it's like why should I why should I care Like you know what I mean I'm not going to talk ill on you or nothing but it's going to be a silent cut off Like I'm not going to talk to you no more I explained everything I want you to know exactly what you did I explain things I'm not going to call you back I'm like you just did some corny stuff I just cut my best friend off and I adored him I really did But then it was like the disrespect just got to a certain level I'm saying I was like I have so much love for you at the point They love me If you did we wouldn't even be having this conversation I have to cut you off Even though that's the last thing I want to do It's like I have to do it because it's just disrespect Like a girl like me like you won't treat somebody You found you in your whole life You probably haven't had anybody be genuine to you and you got me and I was genuine and I love the mess out of you and you didn't appreciate that Like who's lost is that in 20 years You're gonna still be thinking about it That's what I'm saying I was gonna say I be thinking about you I so good I'm so right Him or her whoever it is you know him you know for sure No I would say the same thing Not as violent That's something I really have to work on because I'm I'm bad at cutting people off I just like you have to do something crazy for real because I gonna let go I am not gonna let go Honestly I OK It's the it's the first time it's the I'll give you I'll give you two chances but it's the first time you disrespect me I'm not gonna lie You know I do But my thing is too is I'm very quick To forgive me too I'm very I be forgiving and forgetting That's my I be forgiven No I forgive and then I just won't talk to you no more You know what I'm saying Because my thing is like I've already seen your character like I've seen who you are for real So I'm just not I don't want to stay around because at that point you're bringing down my order too Yeah And since I've done that my order has just been way better You know what I do now it's like after that situation I was like dang I let this boy get way too way too He was way too comfortable That's what that's what it is But like the first time they do something I don't like now I'll be like you know what Because they always of course they're gonna be like I'm trying to make you my girl No you're not So why don't we why are we let's scratch that let's just be friends You know what I'm saying Like with no extra like anything like we can just be homies let's just be homies and then you don't have to worry about lying to me You don't have to worry about your other girls because I think like I feel like people don't realize not everyone that you meet and find attractive You have to date you you you and like a lot of people don't realize that they have to learn that boundary within themselves Like you got to set boundaries and stand on business for real or it's like I I mean I just humble them I'm like OK I get like all these other girls like want you in that way but that's not I said who told you I wanted to be with you people be like oh well like I don't know babe I don't want to be with you and not be like they be wanting more after you be like no bro No I'm not trying to make you want me more babe I'm being honest We want it click I'd be looking at the zodiac signs No for real Come up and be like oh your birthday's this day Oh no that ain't gonna work a work That's why Oh you're a Pisces Pisces is crazy Ok

Pisces is great Scorpios though Love you Oh That's crazy Y'all y'all look it up That's the first question I asked When's your birthday No OK I I literally only ask that question if I'm really vibing with them It's either it's either if I ask you that question it's either because I'm really really vibing with you or because there's there's just something off then I'm gonna try to figure it out Well then you're gonna always ask that question because either you're really vibing with somebody or something's off No some people are just there Yeah some people are just there and I'm just like ok You know what I mean But you know when you meet someone and you're just really really vibing it's like dang we've been to and they are it's either they're an Aries or they're Aquarius or that's a good question What zodiac signs do you attract the most I love me some Scorpios So Scorpios you attract Scorpios the most Like I attract like obsessive signs I don't know what would be going on to water signs No like Pisces and Scorpio Scorpios are like obsessive but like I like it in that way but Pisces be be be doing too much Get your name ta it Right Uh I don't know I attract a lot of Aquariuses and Leo and I attract a lot of fire signs which is weird because I am not like I'm very chill and they're like I feel like I feel like two is like I attract a lot of like mellow signs too and I feel like that's the thing Like I need someone to like chill you out me out because because like when I'm when I'm around someone that's another fire sign it's cool for a bit but I can't be around them for too long because it's like it's just too it's too like um what's the word There's just too much going on Right Like we just got like just chill relax like just chill Not all the time though but like you know what I mean Yeah No for sure But yeah I definitely attract a lot of fire signs especially when I get in Aquarius which is more crazy Let's just chill out I just want to be at home I don't even like going to clubs and stuff I'd rather go to a jazz bar or like a museum or to a game once in a while It's your birthday you win a game your home birth The thing that we went to yesterday I haven't been out in what a month I really only went because y'all were here like for like special events or like that and also UC going out like every day like it's getting desperate it's giving you the like I said another thing that's a red flag Why are you wasting money if you're one of those people Because I'm a cop I'm very good with money So if you're bad with money that's gonna it's gonna you out d Yeah I know because why are you wasting money Like why did you just buy a $3000 bag that you wear one time Why did you do that No no no Honestly that's unattractive to me because I don't even really wear designer like that It's like or if you're buying a whole bunch of designer for yourself and you want me to be your girl and you ain't getting me nothing No no no no I don't like it when guys were like the Gucci on Gucci on Gucci on Gucci Well that's like the article that bothers me but not even in the sense that it has to be like I'm not saying that it's fashion Like you can you can go somewhere else buy something go to Walmart and get you some coats If you really know how to dress baby you can make that work like for sure for sure Cut Yeah Like I've seen like one jacket one Louis Vuitton jacket It'd be cute But now when you wear it on top of you just trying to show off or whatever that I don't like a man and they be wearing I'll tell y'all something the men out here when they be wearing them like really big chains They they they ain't got no they ain't got no money because no no because I'm telling you like but a lot of people with money don't dress like that That's what I'm saying That's no that's what I'm saying Like they're not gonna people with money don't really talk about money for real right It's only be it'll only be the boys that don't really got money No I'm I'm just from experience like honestly for real No Mhm But you don't have to have money y'all that if you got me some Skittles from the gas station I would be like oh my God for real or like roses like a dozen of roses cost like $6 if you got me some flowers I would be ecstatic ladies if a man tells you that he does not buy flowers leave him leave him just go Every guy knows a girl wants flowers but it's not like it's not the fact that oh it's flowers It's just like he's like oh no I just don't do that I wait wait No But I just think that's low key A red flag too It's just it's something simple because I'll buy him flowers Like I have no issue doing that And then it's so cute when you buy a guy flowers and they're like oh my God they get giddy too It's cute Anyways that's the past So did you all see that You all saw that list where it was like um places like restaurants was cool to me Let's go baby We can go right now Cheesecake like once a week The first thing on the chili's Chili's Yeah exactly Wait what 22 TJ On Friday I don't really like Fridays I'm not going to lie on my stomach Oh you know what my favorite restaurant is though Golden Corral Golden Corral at I'm sorry Corral The one with the that's actually kind of nasty That's the one place If a man brought me there I would be upset I would actually I would cry That's the one place now No buffet What is it going to a buffet What are we going to the buffet for me It's just fast food No buffet because they're touching all the food We can go to mcdonald's though I like mcdonald's Oh not on the first date but like we can go one time This guy took me to yeah we can I like the fish filet No no one time this guy took me to mcdonald's for like the date But I couldn't even order because he he had to ask he wanted me to order something from like his like free like his free part This is the last time I saw this man The last time I saw this man That is crazy That is crazy He has lost his mind bro We were talking about him in the group chat for maybe a week That is we still make jokes about that man Did he have a big chain too A big p but he was wearing designer either or it's like you just I just hate it No no no no no no he was just cheap He was just Yeah I mean like I I don't mind saving money I love saving money I'm like I'm a bargainer for sure But it's like to what extent what are we doing for real No I can't I can't talk after that I couldn't talk to a guy that was cheap It like changed my whole perspective You know because sometimes you just wanna like sometimes you just wanna like try it out you gotta try it out at least you know I don't think I try it out really You know I I have I have for a long time Oh that's a lie That was a lie I've definitely ok Not cheap though He wasn't cheap I just he wasn't cheap I just I just took care of a lot of things He wasn't cheap It wasn't his fault it was his fault You know he he just he just broke It is Yeah But some people they they go they go through certain phases where you know they ain't got a lot of money That's fine I I be going through them phases but it's just like I know this man had some money So it was just like you're just being cheap Like I just don't like the fact he wanted you to selected off of his free Yes Oh my God And then on top of that he wanted to he wanted to split the meal like it's mcdonald's it's going to come out at $20 It's not even going to be $20 if you just give me give me this fish filet with french fries Donald's has been upping the prices but that's no excuse No it's so nice to see you I know y'all we flew down here literally just for this just for thank you so much for watching Um I hope y'all enjoyed it and I hope y'all enjoyed me and my two sisters cause I feel like y'all only see us on social media on live especially Hello thank you so much and have a good day Bye bye
