

GDL Ori Spado Feature

<https://silosolo.com/952855>

Summary

The guest on the show is the author of a book called The Accidental Gangster. During the conversation, the host and guest discover they have a family connection through the guest's book. The guest shares how the book came to be, including his time in prison and a suggestion from his entertainment lawyer. He also talks about writing the book and his plans for future books. The guest discusses the prevalence of scams and cons in society today, particularly on social media, and mentions a movie adaptation of his book. The guest met the host through a mutual friend, and they had dinner together. The book is the guest's life story, and he emphasizes that it is a truthful account.

Silo sample questions

- What is the guest's book called?
- How did the guest and the host discover they have a family connection?
- How did the guest come up with the idea for his book?
- What is the guest's plan for future books?
- What is the guest's opinion on the prevalence of scams and cons in society today?

Topics

Family connection

Book writing process

Scams and cons

Movie adaptation

Meeting the host

Book contents

Key Takeaways

- The guest is the author of a book called The Accidental Gangster.
- The host and guest discover they have a family connection through the guest's book.
- The guest shares how the book came to be, including his time in prison and a suggestion from his entertainment lawyer.
- The guest talks about writing the book and his plans for future books.
- The guest discusses the prevalence of scams and cons in society today, particularly on social media.

Click here for the full transcript

Click here for the source