Summary

Newport Beach Vineyards and winery is a hidden gem in Orange County, California. The property was bought in 1998 and has grown grapes and produced wine on-site. They offer tastings of their state wine, which is made on the property. The winery also hosts goat brunches and other events. They have a unique wine cave used for barrel storage and events. TikTok star Christa Allen started actively using the platform in March 2020 and enjoys the sense of community it provides. TikTok has also provided business opportunities, including selling ad space. The winery offers blending classes for customers to create their own wine based on their preferences. The blending process can be done with both red and white wines. The winery's wine cave is a spacious and unique venue made from reclaimed mahogany.
