Summary

The video features three businesses in Los Angeles: R&R Auto Group, Re Grocery, and Alta Adams Restaurant. R&R Auto Group is a full-service collision and auto customization center that works on domestic, foreign, and exotic vehicles. They specialize in Mercedes, Audi, BMW, and other domestic manufacturers and offer a variety of customization services, including vehicle wraps. They are certified to order parts directly from Tesla and have worked with celebrities like Offset. They provide free in-house towing for accident claims. Re Grocery is a package-free grocery store that encourages customers to bring their own containers. They have a wide selection of food and other products and have saved over 15,000 pounds of packaging from going to the landfill. Alta Adams Restaurant specializes in California soul food and sources its ingredients locally. They have popular cocktails and unique culinary creations. The chef is inspired by the community and his own experiences. The restaurant provides opportunities for black chefs and has a strong sense of community.
