Summary

The transcript is about Annabelle's Book Club, a young adult-focused bookstore in Studio City, California. Annabelle started the store to fill a gap in the market for young adult-focused bookstores. She also curates a variety of gift items and has her own line of merchandise. The store features an installation made out of real book pages and book covers. There are book signings, a book club, and children's events held at the store. Annabelle's favorite book is 'All the Light We Cannot See'. Monte Pittman, a guitarist, teaches guitar lessons and has played with Madonna. Dana from KTLA takes a guitar lesson from Monte Pittman and learns the basics of playing guitar. She is invited to play with the band as well.
