

LA Unscripted | December 23rd, 2021

<https://silosolo.com/274475>

Summary

Severance is a wine and cocktail bar in West Hollywood that offers a mix of old world and new world wines, craft cocktails, and serves dark chocolate fondue. The bar was opened using severance money after the owner got laid off. They are hosting an office holiday party pop-up and also serve non-alcoholic drink options. Band of VS is an art and culture business in West Adams that promotes marginalized artists. Their gallery, called Sacred House, offers a safe space for creativity. The pink color of their space represents a love song for the neighborhood.

Silo sample questions

- What is Severance all about?
- What is the origin story of Severance?
- What does Severance offer for the holidays?
- What is Band of VS?
- Why did Band of VS paint their space pink?

Topics

Severance Wine and Fondue Bar

Holiday Office Party Pop-up

Band of VS Art Gallery

Non-Alcoholic Drink Options

Pink Space Design

Key Takeaways

- Severance is a wine and cocktail bar that offers an eclectic mix of old world and new world wines, craft cocktails, and a hangout place in West Hollywood. It also serves dark chocolate fondue and other food options.
- The bar Severance was opened by the owner using the severance money he received after getting laid off in a corporate restructuring. It shows that sometimes getting fired can lead to good things.
- Severance is hosting an office holiday party pop-up with themed cocktails and drinks. They also serve non-alcoholic options for those who don't drink alcohol.
- Band of VS is an art and culture business that aims to identify, promote, and give visibility to marginalized people of color. They host exhibitions at their gallery called Sacred House in West Adams.
- The pink color was chosen to represent a tender side and to create a love song for the neighborhood. The space is called Sacred House and is a sanctuary for different creative ventures.

Click here for the full transcript

Click here for the source