Key Takeaways

- Everything is going to work out. Everything is okay with time. Everything passes. People come and go in seasons and they're not supposed to be in your life forever because I don't let a lot of people in. Don't change, but understand she's going to have to change. You have to change with time because there's no way she can be like that in the real world.

- Scorpios are the most attracted zodiac signs. Water signs like Pisces and Scorpio are also attractive.

- One of the participants would date a guy with kids but wants to be married first. The other participant wouldn't date someone with kids at the moment but might consider it when she's older and everyone starts having kids.

- Some red flags include nonchalant behavior, lack of basic communication skills, and dishonesty. They also mentioned nonchalant men being the most angry people they've met. They also look for men with drive, power, basic manners, and someone who tips when on a date.

- Growing up with Trinity was described as full of life and energy, often resulting in memorable and eventful moments. The participants discussed how Trinity's fire sign personality and the dynamics of being the oldest siblings impacted their childhood experiences.
